

Choosing a profession.

I. What do you want to be?

II. What professional fields can you choose?

III. What is important in choosing a profession?

professions

doctor
pilot
driver
bank clerk
designer
hairdresser
travel agent
journalist
dentist

computer operator
computer programmer
nurse
teacher
vet businessman fireman
policeman (militiaman)
militaryman

A militaryman is a person who defends the Motherland. He services in the army.

A militaryman participates in war actions.

He is strong and brave, resolute and willed.

A militaryman is a patriot of the country

A fireman is a person who puts out fires.

He rescues from danger.

He is courageous and resolute.

A fireman is a fearless and disinterested person.

A policeman is a person who defends a law, social and state order.

He is justice and honest. A policeman must be a sociable, polite and desent person. A policeman is a person who has patience and self- control.

A doctor is a person who works with people and helps them.

A doctor must be patient and kind.

This job is interesting and socially important.

 workers

 militarymen

 lawyers

 policemen

 nurses

 journalists

 bank clerks

 cooker

Factors are helping to make the right choice.

- hard-working
- communicative
- problem-solving skills
- logical reasoning
- profound knowledge
- analytical abilities

- careful
- ambitious
- efficient
- kind
- patient
- physical abilities

