A long-exposure photograph of a tropical beach at dawn. The sky is filled with soft, wispy clouds, transitioning from a deep blue at the top to a warm orange and yellow near the horizon. The sea is calm, with gentle waves lapping at the shore. In the foreground, several large, dark rocks are scattered across the beach. A large palm tree trunk and fronds are visible on the left side of the frame, and another palm tree is on the right. The overall atmosphere is serene and peaceful.

It features a prominent, multi-tiered roof with several levels of eaves, characteristic of traditional Southeast Asian architecture. The building is situated on a body of water, and its reflection is visible in the calm surface. In the background, there are other buildings and lush green trees under a clear sky. The text "Tungsrimumang library" is overlaid in white on the front of the building.
