

ROYAL BRITAIN

The 5th form

Today

- We'll listen to the poem and read it
- We'll practise our words
- We'll do some grammar
- We'll learn some information about the Queen

Now let's listen to the poem!

The King asked
The Queen, and
The Queen asked
The Dairymaid:
"Could we have some butter
for
The Royal slice of bread?"
The Queen asked the Dairymaid,
The Dairymaid
Said, "Certainly,
I'll go and tell
The cow
Now
Before she goes to bed."

The Dairymaid
She curtsied,
And went and told the Alderney:
"Don't forget the butter for
The Royal slice of bread."
The Alderney said sleepily:
"You'd better tell
His Majesty
That many people nowadays
Like marmalade
Instead."

The Queen and the Parliament

- ▣ Let's study the British way of ruling the country!

In Britain the Queen is the symbol of the country.

- She is the head of state but she doesn't rule the country and has no power.

- And, of course, the Queen is very rich.

The Queen and the members of her family

- Travel about the UK and visit schools, hospitals and other special places.

The real power in the country belongs to the British Parliament

The British Parliament consists of the House of Lords

And the House of Commons

The House of Lords doesn't have much power

- ▣ It offers laws
- ▣ It changes laws
- ▣ It delays laws
