What is 'Avatar' about?

- Beginning of movie.
- Some scientists arrived to the science base, like soldiers. The aim of this base was to come to the another worlds. Scientists had for it special objects . The soldiers had slept there and had waken up, but with others bodies. Then they flew to another worlds on the very fast helicopters. These peoples wanted to find joined language with foreign people to find out some information, to explore countries and maybe something else.
