The 'Find People' link is circled in red. Below the navigation bar, the heading 'Find people. Follow them.' is displayed. There are four tabs: 'Find on Twitter', 'Find on other networks', 'Invite by email', and 'Suggested Users'. A text prompt reads 'You can search for people you know who already have a Twitter account.' Below this is a search form with the label 'Who are you looking for?'. The search input field contains the text 'Norma Rist' and is circled in red. A 'search' button is located to the right of the input field. At the bottom right of the page, there is a small silhouette of a bird on a green field.

Introductions

InMail and Introductions

Make Contact Successfully

LinkedIn offers two ways to make your business communications more successful. Communicating through LinkedIn makes you 30 times more likely to get a response.

InMail

InMail lets you communicate directly with the person you need to reach.

Fast and Direct

- Delivered to the user's email address
- Displayed on the user's LinkedIn homepage

Trusted

- LinkedIn acts as a secure communications broker
- Your professional profile gives your recipient the confidence to respond

Introductions

Get a trusted introduction to the person you need to reach.

Simple and flexible

- LinkedIn will tell you who you know in common
- You choose who will make the introductions for you

Trusted

- A mutual friend recommends you to your target, or someone who knows your target.

The first step is to find the person you need:

Use Social Media to Improve your Marketing Results

Posted by Chris Brown on June 22nd, 2009 in Marketing | Edit

Today I presented Using Social Media to Improve Your Marketing Results to the COSE Home Business Network Workshop at Indiana Wesleyan, just south of Cleveland, Ohio on Rockside Road in Independence.

As promised, here is the link to slideshare.net with my PowerPoint slides.

You'll want to check my post from May with lots of other Twitter, Linked In and other tools too: Social Media Marketing Tips and Tools May 2009

This was the description before the event:

"Are you in a blog fog? Confused about Twittering and tweets? Keep hearing how social media is the "next big thing" for marketing your business? Take some of the confusion out of the social media maze with the COSE Home Business Network June 25 workshop, Using Social Media to Improve Your Marketing Results. Chris Brown, owner and president of Marketing Resources & Results, Inc. will explain the various types of media, when to use them, how to use them and show you how to measure their effectiveness in your marketing campaign. Interactive questions and answers will also help to eliminate some of the confusion and help you develop a powerful program using Web 2.0 techniques."
