It was written by Roy Williamson of the folk group.

«Flower of Scotland».

- O Flower of Scotland
- When will we see
- Your like again,
- That fought and died for
- Your wee bit Hill and Glen
- And stood against him
- Proud Edward's Army,
- And sent him homeward
- Tae think again.
- The Hills are bare now
- And Autumn leaves lie thick and still
- O'er land that is lost now
- Which those so dearly held
- That stood against him
- Proud Edward's Army
- And sent him homeward
- Tae think again.
- Those days are past now
- And in the past they must remain

“Scotland The Brave”

*Hark when the night is falling
Hear! hear the pipes are calling,
Loudly and proudly calling,
Down thro' the glen.*

There where the hills are sleeping,

*Now feel the blood a-leaping,
High as the spirits of the old Highland men.*

Chorus

*Towering in gallant fame,
Scotland my mountain hame,
High may your proud
standard gloriously wave,
Land of my high endeavour,
Land of the shining rivers,
Land of my heart for ever,
Scotland the brave.*

*High in the misty Highlands,
Out by the purple islands,*

*Brave are the hearts that beat Beneath Scottish skies.
Wild are the winds to meet you,
Staunch are the friends that greet you,
Kind as the love that shines from fair maidens' eyes.*

Chorus

*Far off in sunlit places,
Sad are the Scottish faces,
Yearning to feel the kiss
Of sweet Scottish rain.
Where tropic skies are beaming,
Love sets the heart a-dreaming, Longing and dreaming for the homeland again.*

Chorus
