

The most dangerous professions

Fisherman

- Fishing is a good job on condition that the waters are stable otherwise this is the most dangerous job with a high mortality rate due to drowning, as a result of heavy storm, dangerous sea animals like sharks or crocodiles.

Miner

- A Miner is a professional who works in mines. This job is dangerous, it takes lives in case of any accident under the mines and many deaths have been reported as a result of accidents in mines across the world.

Roofer

- This is a dangerous job which puts your life at risk climbing roofs of different heights which may be slippery and you may fall off the roof in case of any mistake made and there are fewer chances that you will survive.

Logger

- Loggers cut down trees and load the logs onto trailers and railroad cars. Workers must be careful of falling trees and heavy equipment.

