- Now I want to know how well you listened to each other. I'll ask you some questions:
- 1. What places are the most interesting places in Moscow? (Red Square and the Kremlin);
- 2. What historical monuments do you know in the Kremlin? (The Tsar Bell and the Tsar Canon);
- 3. How old is London? (more than 2 thousand years old);
- 4. London consists of 3 parts. What are they? (The City, the West and the East End);
- 5. What is the City? (is the heart of the business and financial life of the country)
- 6. What other interesting places do you know in London? (Trafalgar Square, a Monument to Admiral Nelson, the National Gallery .... and so on)

- You will be given the following situation... You are in London and you want to get to some places (they are cinemas, museums, theatres and so on). Ask a passer – by to help you to find these places.
- First listen to the tape- recording and then complete a dialogue according to this plan: - Ask for help
- - Reply
- - Ask for information
- - Thank your helper
- - Say «Thanks very much»

- V – Visitor; P- Passer – by
- V: Excuse me. Could you tell me where the Picture Gallery is, please?
- P: It's just around the corner, on the opposite side of the road. Let me show you.
- V: Thank you very much. That's very kind of you.
- P: Are you a stranger in the town?
- V: Oh, yes. I've just arrived this morning.
- P: Where are you from?
- V: Newport.
- P: That's a nice town. I've been there. Oh, there's the Picture Gallery there.
- V: Thank you for your help.
- P: You're quite welcome. I hope you'll enjoy your visit.
