N.A. Berdyaev's Philosophy of “New Spirituality”

Dissertation Proposal by Albina Bulatova

2016

About N.A. Berdyaev

Nicholas A. Berdyaev (1874-1948) – well-known both in Russia and Europe as a religious philosopher, apologist of the Spirit’s freedom and creativeness as “creativity for better life”.

Actuality

- * It's urgent nowadays addressing to the sustainable cultural and political programs, introduced by Russian philosophers.
- * Berdyayev's intellectual heritage may be a highly productive path to overcome the spiritual crisis of the modern world, experienced tragic social processes over XX-XXI centuries and technology's superiority.

Thesis

- * We postulate a profound global potential in Berdyaev's original metaphysics of creativeness.
- * His distinctive view on the meaning of history, the fate of individual in eternity, Russia's and Christian world's future – are in the focus of our research.

Key Points of the Research

- * Creativeness as the calling for spiritual life, according to Berdyaev, is always directed to the world and to other people, to the society and history.
- * In this sense his metaphysics represents new specific project of “culture’s Christianization”.
- * The study analyses the sources of Berdyaev’s thought and his significant novation.
