

Museums of London

There are a lot of museums in London.

The British Museum

The British Museum is one of the greatest museums in the world. The British Museum is also the oldest museum in the world. It was founded in 1753. It tells over two million years of world history and culture. It has got 94 galleries and thousands of artefacts. It comprises the national museum of archaeology and ethnography and the national library.

The Museum of London

The Museum of London is situated in the centre of London. Its exhibits tell us about London's history. It was founded in 1976.

The Natural History Museum

The Natural History Museum contains five principal collections on the history of plants, minerals and the animal kingdom and a series of permanent exhibitions. It is famous for its collection of the bones of dinosaurs.

The London Transport Museum

The London Transport Museum contains a big collection of buses, trams and tube's carriages. It is interesting for children. They can go into a bus or a tube carriage and talk with the actors playing the role of drivers.

Madame Tussaud's Wax Museum

Madame Tussaud's is the most popular wax museum in the world. It was founded in 1835. There are wax models of the famous and infamous, both living and dead, from every walk of life. The museum is situated in Marylebone Road, not far from the street which is famous as the home of the first great detective in fiction, Conan Doyle's Sherlock Holmes.

There are several halls at Madame Tussaud's. Highlights include the Grand Hall, the Chamber of Horrors and "The Spirit of London" exhibition. The wax figures are standing and sitting, and sometimes even moving and talking.

OPEN.AZ

Michael Jackson

