Future roles

Depp stated in a BBC radio interview on July 29, 2013 that he hoped to be involved with "quieter things" at some point in the near future, implying that he would retire from acting. Depp explained, "I wouldn't say I'm dropping out any second, but I would say it's probably not too far away. When you add up the amount of dialogue that you say per year and you realise that you've said written words more than you've had a chance to say your own words, you start thinking about that as an insane option for a human being."^[96]

On March 27, 2017, Depp was cast to portray antivirus software developer John McAfee in a forthcoming film entitled King of the Jungle.^[97] Glenn Ficarra and John Requa will direct the film, while Scott Alexander and Larry Karaszewski will write the script.

Depp is set to return as Gellert Grindelwald in the third Fantastic Beasts film, which is scheduled for release on November 20, 2020.^{[98][99][100]}

Variety reported in 2018 that Depp will portray W. Eugene Smith in an independent film drama called Minamata.^[101]
