

THE STATE RUSSIAN MUSEUM IN ST. PETERSBURG

is a real museum complex.

by Bulyatova Alexandra

The State Russian Museum is a real museum complex.
The exposition part is located in 5 buildings:

The Mikhailovsky Palace (the main building) built in 1825 with the Benois (Бенуа) Exhibition Hall and the Mikhailovsky Gardens

Mikhailovsky (Engineer) Castle, 1797, and Gardens of Mikhailovsky (Engineer) Castle.

The "Marble palace" was built in 1785
by the architect Rinaldi.

The Stroganov Palace was built in 1754
by the architect Rastrelli.

Summer Palace of Peter I is located in the Summer Gardens. The palace was built in 1712 by the architect Trezzini.

The coffee house is located in the Summer Gardens. Built by architect Rossi in 1826.

The Tea house is located in the Summer Gardens.
Built by architect Charlemagne in 1827.

The museum also includes:
Summer Gardens, 1704-1777 made for Peter I

The house of Peter the Great on Petrovskaya Embankment and several other buildings.

Our gymnasium is also related to the Russian Museum.
In 1989 the gymnasium became the first educational institution at the museum in Russia.

Thank you for your attention!