

The most popular sports in Poland

Football in Poland

More than 50% of population of Poland are interested in this sport.

Which well-known athletes and practise this sport.

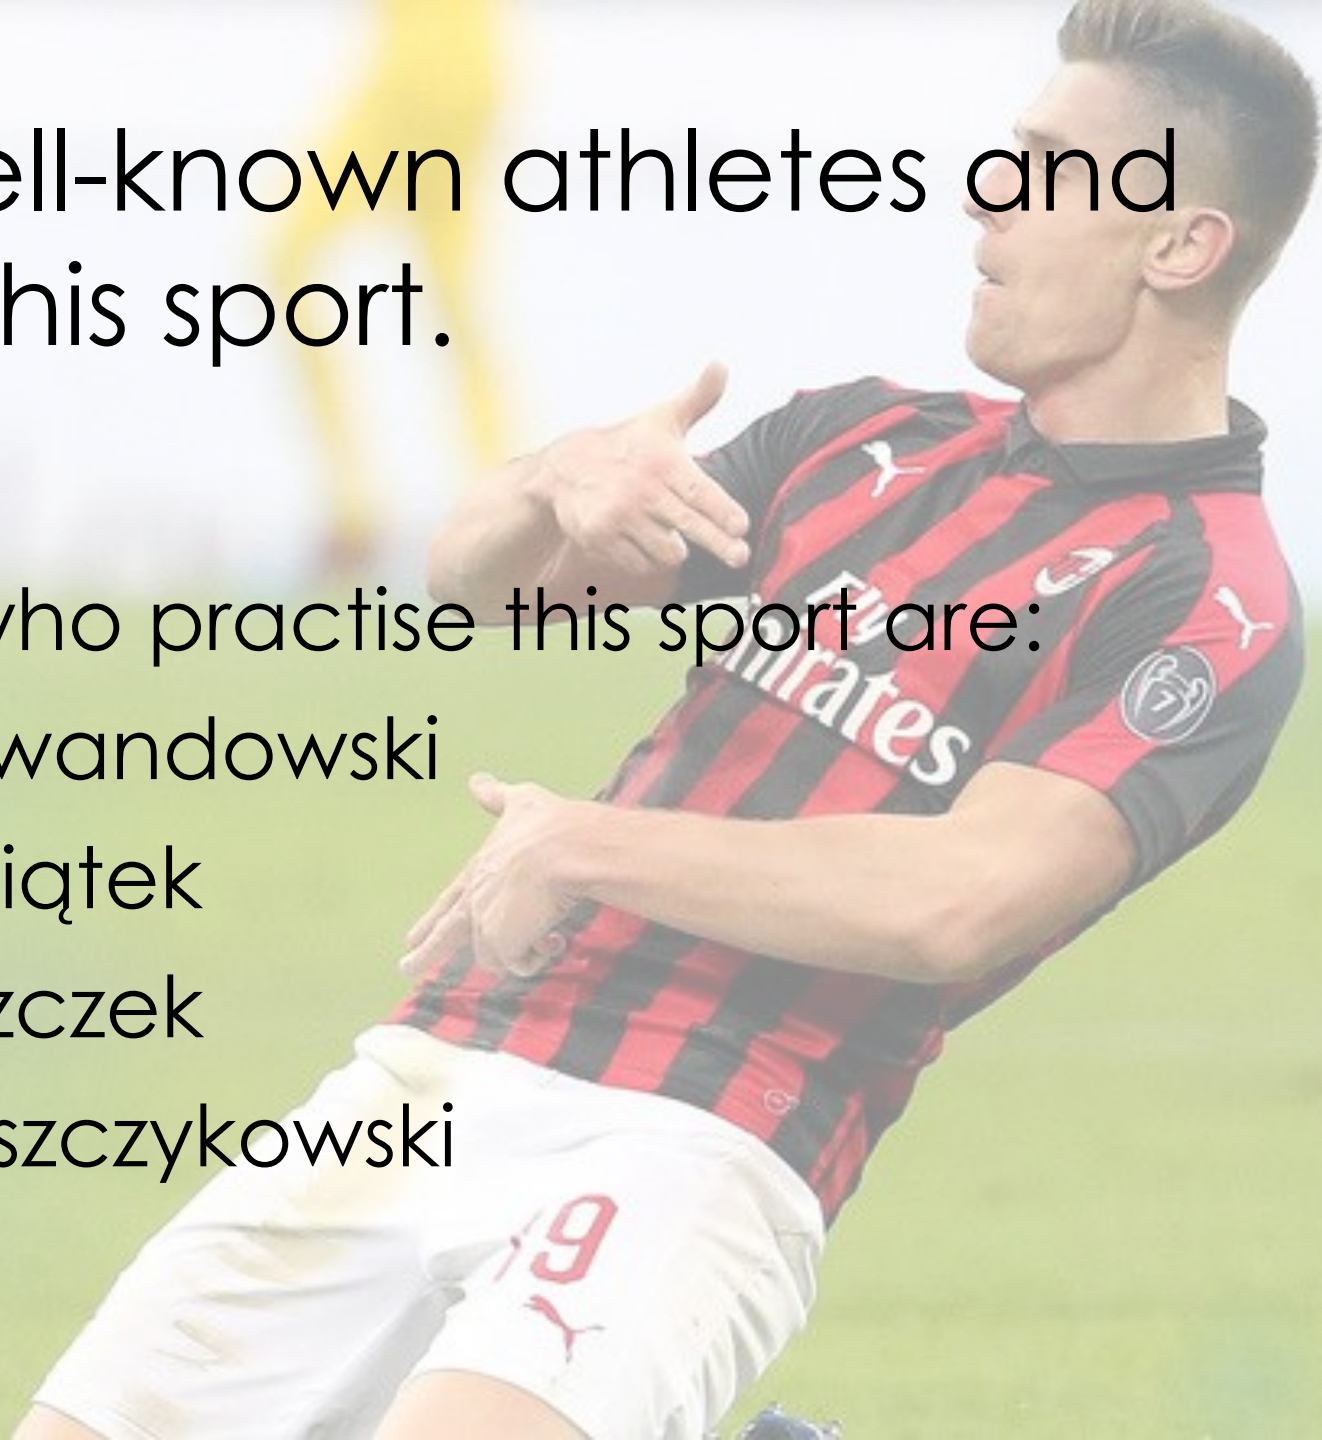

Athletes who practise this sport are:

Robert Lewandowski

Krzysztof Piątek

Łukasz Piszczek

Jakub Blaszczykowski

What are the most popular football clubs in Poland?

Most famous clubs in the Poland are:

Legia Warszawa

Wisla Krakow

Arka Gdynia

An aerial view of a large soccer stadium filled with spectators. The field is green, and the stands are packed with people. A bright green square is visible in the top right corner of the image.

Where and how often the tournaments take place.

Tournaments are played on stadiums – for example (the largest ones):

Michigan Stadium in Ann Arbor, United States of America

Beaver Stadium in State College, United States of America

Kyle Stadium in College Station, United States of America

The tournaments take place every four years

(FIFA World Cup, FIFA Confederations Cup, UEFA European Championship)

or

each year (UEFA Champions League)

What makes football so popular?

- ▶ This sport is so popular, because it rise emotions in people when they are cheering during matches and is one of the most engaging sport when it comes usage of body.

Ski jumping in Poland

- ▶ This type of sport have many fans, because of great scores achieved by athletes.

Which well-known athletes and practise this sport.

- ▶ Adam Małysz
- ▶ Kamil Stoch
- ▶ Piotr Żyła
- ▶ Dawid Kubacki

Where and how often the tournaments take place?

- ▶ Tournaments are organized at ski jumping hills (for example longest ones) such as:
- ▶ K-225 in Vikersund, Norway
- ▶ K-225 in Planica, Slovenia
- ▶ K-225 in Obersdorf, Germany
- ▶ K-225 in Tauplitz, Austria

The tournaments take place every year (FIS Cup, FIS Sky Jumping Continental Cup, FIS Sky Jumping World Cup, Four Hills Tournament)

What makes ski jumping so popular?

- ▶ Ski jumping is so popular, because of victories gained mainly by Adam Małysz (four Crystal Globes, four gold FIS Nordic World Ski Championships medals, ten other World cup gold medals etc.) and Kamil Stoch (two Crystal Globes, three Olympic Games gold medals, two FIS Nordic World Ski Championships medals, six other World Cup gold medals etc.)

