The ten Moral Commandments (Deut. 5: 6-21)

8. Do not commit adultery.

9. Do not steal.

10. Do not give false testimony to your neighbor.

Divine Command Theory

- “Morally Good” = “What is Allah’s will”
- “What are right actions?” = “What Allah told to do?”
- Divine Law for Islam = Shari’ah

Divine Command Theory

Shari'ah

- People attitude toward God = Five Islamic Pillars

- People attitude toward other human beings = Civil Law

Five Pillars

Five Pillars

- Shahadah = “there is no god but Allah, and that Mohammed is the Messenger of God”

Five Pillars

- Salah = 5 times a day ritual pray

Five Pillars

- Zakat= the requirement to help poor people and provide them with alms in order to promote Islam

Five Pillars

- Sawm = ritual prohibition of smoking and other bad habits, especially during the month of Ramadan

Five Pillars

- Haji= journey to Mecca in the month after Ramadan and which Muslims should undertake at least once in a lifetime

Euthanasia

This act is Islamically forbidden for it encompasses a positive role on the part of the physician to end the life of the patient and hasten his death via lethal injection, electric shock, a sharp weapon or any other way. This is an act of killing, and, killing is a major sin and thus forbidden in Islam, the religion of pure mercy.” - Yusuf al-Qaradawi On Euthanasia:

Euthanasia

Islamic jurisprudence, based on a convincing interpretation of the holy Quran, does not recognize a person's right to die voluntarily. • The Islamic arguments against euthanasia can be summarized in two main reasons On Euthanasia:

Euthanasia

1. Life is sacred and euthanasia and suicide are not included among the reasons allowed for killing in Islam.
2. Allah decides how long each of us will live and two verses support this reason. On Euthanasia:

Euthanasia

Conclusion:

- It is He (Allah) who gives and takes away life. No human can give or take it.
- Muslims are against euthanasia. They believe that all human life is sacred because it is given by Allah.
- Allah chooses how long each person will live. Human beings should not interfere in this.

Abortion

- Islam values human life
- “On the Day of Judgment parents who killed their children will be under trial for that crime, and their children will be witnesses against them.” (Qur'an 81:8- 9).
- “Do not slay your children for fear of poverty. We shall provide for them and for you.” (Qur'an 17:31).
- “Even in a case where one is already poor, the Qur'an insists that Allah will provide sustenance for us and for our children, and furthermore that Allah has made human life sacred.” (Qur'an 6:151).

Conclusion

- Islam offers an ethical system which is unique. In Islam, ethics and religion are rooted to primordial human nature which is innocent and good unless is corrupted. Similarly, ethics, religion and law (fiqh) are complementary and do not contradict to each other. In this case, what is morally wrong is also illegal, and the law permits only what is moral. Similarly, in Islam both morality and law are derived from religious sources and religious teachings are practiced through morality and law. Second, Islamic ethical system is unique, because its value-judgements transcend all worldly gains and relativism interpretations. Transcendentalism, universalism and normative character are among building blocks of Islamic ethics.
