

LECTURE 6

Topic: “Principals of Fair Play”

What is Fair Play?

- Fair play is a complex concept that comprises and embodies a number of fundamental values that are not only integral to sport but relevant in everyday life.
- Fair competition, respect, friendship, team spirit, equality, sport without doping, respect for written and unwritten rules such as integrity, solidarity, tolerance, care, excellence and joy, are the building blocks of fair play that can be experienced and learnt both on and off the field.

- What do the fundamental values of fair play mean?
- Fair competition
- To enjoy the fruits of success, it is not enough to win. Triumph must be measured by absolute fair means, honesty and just play.

Respect

For every athlete, playing by the written rules is mandatory, and respecting the unwritten ones is a must. Fair play requires unconditional respect for opponents, fellow players, referees and fans.

Friendship

- Rivalry on the field does not exclude friendship. On the contrary, friendship could grow from noble rivalries.

Friendship – Дружба - Достық

Team spirit

- Individuals can be strong on their own, but they are much stronger in a team. Sharing the moment of victory with your team is the ultimate pleasure.

- Equality

- Competing on equal terms is essential in sport. Otherwise, performance cannot be measured properly.

- Sport without doping

- Fair play means not cheating by taking drugs or doping. Anyone who does this ruins the game for everyone else.

- Integrity

- Being honest and having strong moral principles are essential to fair play. Practicing sport within a sound ethical framework is vitally important if you aim to be a true champion.

- Solidarity

- It is important to support each other and share feelings, aims and dreams. Mutual support brings mutual success on and off the field.

- Tolerance

- The willingness to accept behavior or decisions you may not agree with develops your self-control. Ultimately, that could be the deciding factor when it comes to winning or losing.

Care

- True champions care about each other as they are well aware that they could not be where they are without having been cared for by others.

Excellence

- Sport engages us in a collective effort to pursue human excellence.

Joy

- Pierre de Coubertin, the father of the modern Olympic Games said: "The important thing in life is not the triumph, but the fight. The essential thing is not to have won, but to have fought well." Competition can be intense, but you should always first look for joy when practicing any sports. You should never forget about the play even in the heat of the fight.

- How do the fundamental values of fair play contribute to the betterment of the world?
- Fair play is not a theory. Fair play is an attitude that manifests itself in behavior. Whenever we act in the spirit of fair play we contribute to building a peaceful and better world.
- Without fairness and trustworthiness the established order of our society is at risk. If we do not play by the rules, we ruin the spirit of the game and it is impossible to play with destroyers of the game.
- Fair play, which is an essential and central part of successful involvement, promotion and development in both sport and life, can teach people tolerance and respect for others. It allows them to integrate into society and create a sense of teamwork. Fair play in sport is capable of giving hope, pride and identity, and it is able to unite where nationalities, politics, religions and cultures often divide.
- Cooperation in the spirit of fair play delivers even greater results than pure gamesmanship in all walks of life. It plays a key role, the role of a catalyst in today's society as a means of improving quality of life and human well-being.

Fair play for champions of everyday life

- "Neither by nature, then, nor contrary to nature do the virtues arise in us; rather we are adapted by nature to receive them, and are made perfect by habit." Aristotle, Nichomachean Ethics"

Fair play is a positive concept. Sport is a social and cultural activity which, practiced fairly, enriches society and the friendship between nations. Sport is also recognized as an individual activity which, played fairly, offers the opportunity for self-knowledge, self-expression and fulfillment; personal achievement, skill acquisition and demonstration of ability; social interaction, enjoyment, good health and well-being. Sport promotes involvement and responsibility in society with its wide range of clubs and leaders working voluntarily. In addition, responsible involvement in some activities can help to promote sensitivity to the environment." Code of Sports Ethics, Council of Europe
