My idol.

- My idol in volleyball is Sergey Tetyukhin

Biography.

- Sergey Yuryevich Tetyukhin-(b. 23 September 1975, the station Margilan, Fergana region) — Russia's volleyball player, outside hitter of team Russia and "Belogorie", the Olympic champion-2012, silver medalist of the Olympic games in Sydney, bronze medalist of the Olympic games in Athens and Beijing, the world Championships medalist, multiple winner of the European Championships, honored master of sports of Russia.

Youth.

Childhood Sergei Tetyukhin was held in Fergana. The first coach of the athlete was his father, Yuri Ivanovich, and the first team in his career — Tashkent "wings of the East". In 1992, due to the changed socio-political situation and lack of prospects for growth of the player at home, the family Tetjuhina took the decision to move to Russia and honored coach of the USSR Yuri Turaeva went to Belgorod. Sergei was accepted into the team "Belogorie"

Club career.

In 1995, Tetyukhin won with Belgorod "the Locomotive" the first trophy — Russian Cup in 1997 and 1998, became the champion of the country, and in 1999 was first voted the most valuable player of the championship, winning the prize Andrey Kuznetsov. The third time the title of the best Russian volleyball player Sergei Tetyukhin was awarded in 2006. In the summer of 2006, along with partners in Belgorod "Loco" Alexander Kosarev and Vadim Khamuttskikh has passed in Kazan "the Dynamo-Tattransgaz". In the fall of 2009 Tetyukhin in the composition of Zenit Kazan has won its 8th national Cup and was named MVP of the "Final eight" in Kaliningrad, and in May 2010 for the eighth time became the champion of Russia. In 2010/2011 largely due to the skill and years of experience tetjuhina "Zenith" has managed to defeat in the final of the Moscow "Dynamo", which gained the course to the final stages of the playoffs. May 7, 2011 Sergey Tetyukhin was 9-fold champion of the country, thereby further strengthening its leadership in the number of titles in the Russian Superleague. After the season went back in "Belogore". In December 2012 Sergey Tetyukhin for the ninth time in his career won the Cup of Russia, and soon again began to be published regularly in the "BELOGORIYA" recovering from problems with his knees and irregular heart rhythm, chasing the athlete before and after the Olympic tournament in London. In March 2014, Sergey Tetyukhin in the fourth time have won the Champions League and for the game in the final match against Turkish "Halkbank" was awarded with the MVP award. March 26, 2017 in the championship of Russia against "Zenith" Sergey Tetyukhin played in lineup of "Belogorie", along with his son Paul.

Team Russia.

1994 Sergey Tetyukhin entered the youth team of Russia. At the European Championships in Turkey the team led by Valery Alferov, won the gold medal. In 2002, the Russian team won their first World League and took the silver medals of the championship of the world. The first break in performances for the national team Tetyukhin took in 2005 when he tried his hand at beach volleyball. But soon, at the last stage of preparation for the championship of Europe-2005, Sergey was again in the national team of Russia. In October 2011 after a two-year break in performances for the national team Sergey Tetyukhin entered the bid for the world Cup and the second time in his career he became the winner of this tournament. Sergey Tetyukhin — winner of the silver medal of the Olympic games in Sydney, bronze medals of the Games in Athens and Beijing, and after a victory on the Games in London, Sergei became the first men's volleyball a winner of four Olympic medals, including gold. Participation at the London Olympics was called into question — in the spring of 2012, doctors diagnosed him with a deviation of cardiac rhythm and just a month before the competition was allowed to resume training. Say he performed a miracle. Yes, he's a thousand times saved the party and the games! Out on the pitch, or scored crazy goals, or the protection of lugging such a blow what anyone else to get can not. He is a Player, even Igracima. Since it began, the turning point in the final. After the final of the London Olympics Sergey Tetyukhin announced the completion of performances for the national team. In April of 2015 in conversation with Andrey voronkovym admitted the possibility of his return, and his name was included in the application for the World League. In July of the same year, after the Russian team was again headed by Vladimir Alekno, Tetyukhin agreed to help her solve the task to qualify for the Olympic games in Rio de Janeiro. The world Cup match against the national team of Egypt, held on September 18, was his 300th official game for the Russian national team. At the end of 2015, Sergei tetyuhin was elected captain of the team. At the European Olympic qualifying tournament held in January 2016 in Berlin, he was awarded from the organizers of the MVP. The Olympic games in Rio de Janeiro became the sixth Olympic games, Sergei tetyuhin.. 5 August 2016 Tetyukhin was carrying the Russian flag at the opening ceremony of the Games in Rio de Janeiro[31]. As at all previous Olympics with his participation, the Russian team reached the semifinals, but this time remained without medals. On 21 August, after the defeat of team USA in the bronze medal match at the
