

A nighttime photograph of the London skyline. The London Eye is illuminated in blue on the left. The Shard is lit up in yellow in the center. The River Thames flows in the foreground, with several bridges and buildings along the banks. The sky is a deep blue.

English Presentation

Places of Interest in London

Fedor voloshchuk

Form 8-A

Dolynska gymnasium #3

Teacher: Sheremet

T.V.

VOCABULARY

Richest

Ancient

Buried

Monuments

Richest

Ancient

R.I.P.

—
—
—

Buried

Monument

The text

London is a very old city. It is about two thousand years old. Today London is one of the biggest cities in the world. Its population is about 8 million people.

As an ancient city London has a great number of places of historic interest.

London is traditionally divided into four main parts. They are Westminster, the City, the West End and the East End. Westminster is the historical area in London. Famous monuments and buildings are there. One of the most beautiful places is Westminster Abbey.

The East End.

Many greatest poets and writers are buried there. Chauser, Dickens, Kipling are among them. Newton and Darwin are buried there too. Another place which is worth seeing in London is the Tower. Now it is a museum. The greatest of English churches is St. Paul's Cathedral.

London is famous for its streets and squares as well. Fleet Street is known for the newspaper offices situated there. Regent Street is famous for the richest shops and supermarkets.

Thanks for your attention

THE END

