Questions Before Listening

As we are speaking about crimes, criminals and laws I want you to express your opinion and give your arguments “for” and “against” the following ideas written on the blackboard.

- Crime is inevitable in any society.
- The number of crimes committed in the society shows the state of it.
- The reason of many crimes committed by people is poverty.

New Vocabulary

- abduction = taking someone against their will (kidnapping)
- arson = setting fire to a property
- assault = a physical attack
- burglary = illegal entry to a building with an intent to commit a crime
- child abuse = maltreatment of a child
- drug trafficking = importing illegal drugs
- false imprisonment = imprisoning a person against their will
- fraud = deception for personal or financial gain
- hacking = unauthorised access to data in a computer system
- hijacking = illegally getting control of an aircraft or vehicle
- human trafficking = illegally transporting people, usually for slave labour or commercial sexual exploitation

Listening

- Now listen to the extracts. Match the headings with the texts. Take your pencils and underline key words or phrases to prove your opinion. What is each text about?

Dialogue

- Work in pairs. One of you is a police officer and one of you is a victim.

Make up a dialogue using the vocabulary from the texts

THANK YOU!
