Where does the name
'Christmas'
come from?

The name 'Christmas' comes from the Mass of Christ.

A Mass service is where Christians remember that Jesus died for us and then came back to life. The 'Christ-Mass' service was the only one that was allowed to take place after sunset (and before sunrise the next day), so people had it at Midnight! So we get the name Christ-Mass, shortened to Christmas.

How is the period of four Sundays and weeks before Christmas called?

ADVENT

Advent means 'Coming' in Latin. This is the coming of Jesus into the world. Christians use the four Sundays and weeks of Advent to prepare and remember the real meaning of Christmas.

Some people fast(don't eat meat and dairy) during advent to help them concentrate on preparing to celebrate Jesus's coming.

What are the two most common ways to count days and weeks during the Advent before Christmas?

There are several ways that Advent is counted down but the most common is by a calendar or candles.

Christians light Advent wreaths with 4 candles. One candle is lit on the first Sunday of Advent, two are lit on the second Sunday and so on.

The most common calendars are made of paper or card with 25 little windows on. A window is opened every day in December and a Christmas picture is displayed underneath. Some of these types of calendar have chocolate under each window, to make every day in December a little bit better!

What is the origin of Santa Claus?

The origin of Santa Claus begins in the 4th century with Saint Nicholas, Bishop of Myra an area in present day Turkey. By all accounts St. Nicholas was a generous man, particularly devoted to children. He was a very rich man because his parents died when he was young and left him a lot of money. He was also a very kind man and had a reputation for helping the poor and giving secret gifts to people who needed it.

The image shows four red and white Christmas stockings hanging from a wooden mantel. The stockings are made of a soft, fuzzy material. The top of each stocking is white with a red trim, and the rest is red. They are hanging in a row from left to right. In the background, there is a Christmas tree decorated with lights and ornaments, and a fireplace mantel with more decorations. The scene is lit with warm, golden light, creating a cozy holiday atmosphere.

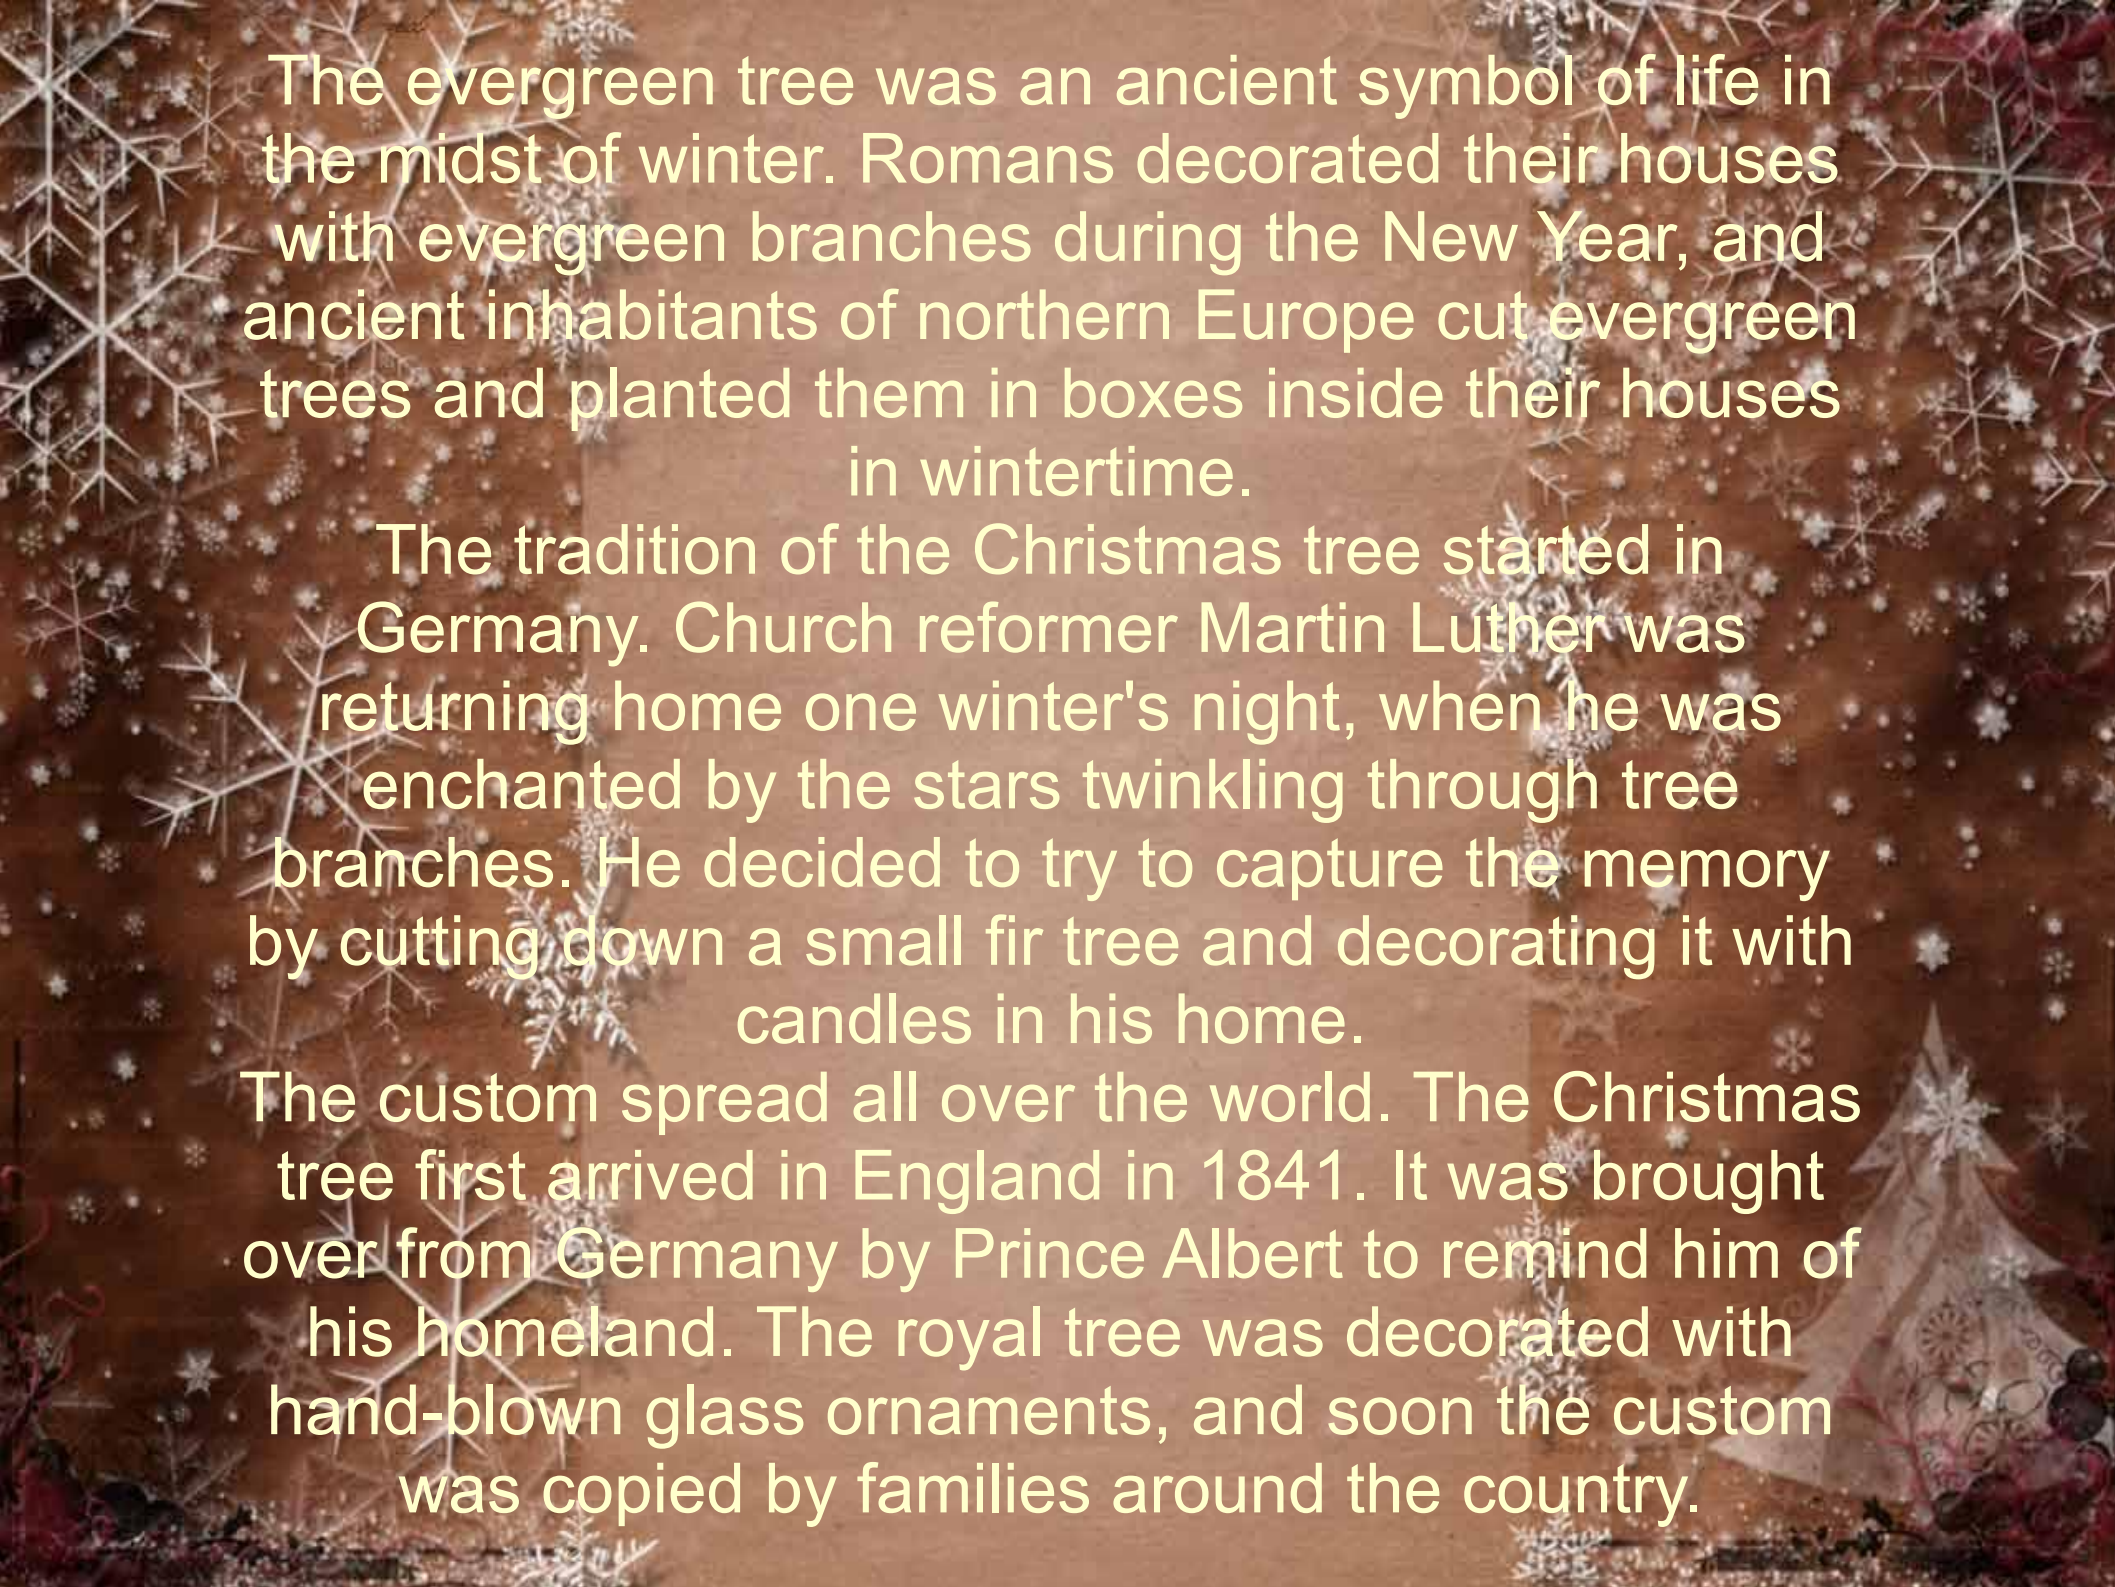

How did the custom of hanging up stockings to get presents in first start?

According to tradition, the original Saint Nicholas put gold coins in the stockings of three poor sisters. One night, the girls left their stockings drying over the fireplace. Saint Nicholas knew the family was very poor, so he threw three bags of gold coins down the chimney. The money landed in the sisters' stockings. Since then, children have hung up their Christmas stockings on Christmas Eve, hoping to find them filled with gifts in the morning.

A painting of a family in a parlor gathered around a Christmas tree. The scene is dimly lit, with the primary light source being the warm, glowing lights of the tree. A woman in a dark, long dress stands on the right, holding the hand of a young girl in a patterned skirt. In the center, two young boys are dancing or playing. To the left, a man in a white shirt and dark vest stands near a doorway. The room is filled with holiday decorations, including a large, ornate tree adorned with lights and ornaments. The overall atmosphere is cozy and festive.

Why do we put up a Christmas tree?

The evergreen tree was an ancient symbol of life in the midst of winter. Romans decorated their houses with evergreen branches during the New Year, and ancient inhabitants of northern Europe cut evergreen trees and planted them in boxes inside their houses in wintertime.

The tradition of the Christmas tree started in Germany. Church reformer Martin Luther was returning home one winter's night, when he was enchanted by the stars twinkling through tree branches. He decided to try to capture the memory by cutting down a small fir tree and decorating it with candles in his home.

The custom spread all over the world. The Christmas tree first arrived in England in 1841. It was brought over from Germany by Prince Albert to remind him of his homeland. The royal tree was decorated with hand-blown glass ornaments, and soon the custom was copied by families around the country.

What is Mistletoe?
And what is the famous Christmas tradition connected with it?

Mistletoe is a plant that grows on willow and apple trees (and in garden centres!). The tradition of hanging it in the house goes back to the times of the ancient Druids. It is supposed to possess mystical powers which bring good luck to the household and wards off evil spirits. It was also used as a sign of love and friendship in Norse mythology and that's where the custom of kissing under Mistletoe comes from.

What are the colours of Christmas and what do they symbolize?

Red- an early use of red at Christmas were the apples on the paradise tree. They represented the fall of Adam in the plays.Red is also the color of Holly berries, which is said to represent the blood of Jesus when he died on the cross.

Green - Evergreen plants, like Holly, Ivy and Mistletoe have been used for thousands of years to decorate and brighten up buildings during the long dark winter.

White is often associated with purity and peace in western cultures. The snow of winter is also very white!

Gold is the color of the Sun and light - both very important in the dark winter.Gold was also one of the presents brought to the baby Jesus by one of the wise men and traditionally it's the color used to show the star that the wise men followed.

Blue - The color blue is often associated with Mary, the mother of Jesus. In medieval times blue dye and paint was more expensive than gold! So it would only be worn by Royal families and very rich people. Mary was often painted wearing blue to show she was very important.

What is the name of a special Xmas song which is sung during Christmas time?

Carol

The word Carol actually means dance or a song of praise and joy! Carol singing, or Caroling, is one of the oldest customs in Great Britain, going back to the Middle Ages when beggars, seeking food, money, or drink, would wander the streets singing holiday songs.

People today still go carol singing. People go from house to house singing carols and collecting money for charity.

The traditional period to sing carols is from St Thomas's Day (21 December) until the morning of Christmas Day.
