

How to behave on the train?

Teenagers need to train:

- 1) to take his place in the carriage indicated in the ticket*
- 2) observe good personal hygiene (wash ,brush teeth , wash hands)*

3)to respect the day

4)to observe the rules of fire safety

5)to inform an adult if health deteriorated

Teenagers don't need to train:

1) sit on the top shelf more than two people

2) go into the vestibule during train movement

3) look out the window if it is open (during the train)

4) throw garbage out the window
5) to play outdoor games
6) Smoking

A young boy with short brown hair, wearing a blue and white striped t-shirt, is seen from behind, looking out of a train window. His hands are resting on the window ledge. To his right, another person's hand is visible, also resting on the ledge. The view outside the window shows a bright, overcast sky and a landscape with green trees and a yellowish field. The train's interior window frame is visible on the right side of the image.

the train is allowed:

1)to move from carriage to carriage with the guide

2)Open the Windows in the compartment, if allows the maintainer or conductor

A perspective view of a railway track stretching into the distance. The tracks are made of metal rails and wooden sleepers, with gravel ballast between them. The track leads towards a hazy, overcast sky. The text "Have a good trip!" is overlaid in a black, cursive font in the upper center of the image.

Have a good trip!