THE PASSIVE VOICE

PRESENT
PAST
FUTURE
PRESENT PERFECT

FORMATION (PRESENT)

Subject + present form of the verb to be + Past Participle (3rd form of irregular verbs)

Charles writes a book.

A book is written by Charles.

Charles cleans the windows.

The windows are cleaned by Charles.

I write a book.
You write a book.
He writes a book.

We write a book.
You write a book.
They write a book.

PASSIVE

A book is written by me.

A book is written by you.

A book is written by him.

A book is written by us.

A book is written by you.

A book is written by them.

FORMATION (PAST)

Subject + past form of the verb to be + Past Participle (3rd form of irregular verbs)

Charles wrote a book.

A book was written by Charles.

Charles cleaned the windows.

The windows were cleaned by Charles

PASSIVE

I wrote a book.
You wrote a book.
He wrote a book.

A book was written by me A book was written by you A book was written by him

We wrote a book.
You wrote a book.
They wrote a book.

A book was written by us.

A book was written by you.

A book was written by them.

FORMATION (FUTURE)

Subject + will future form of the verb to be + Past Participle (3rd form of irregular verbs)

Charles will write a book.

A book will be written by Charles.

Charles will clean the windows.

The windows will be cleaned by Charles.

I will write a book.
You will write a book.
He will write a book.

PASSIVE

A book will be written by me A book will be written by you A book will be written by him

We will write a book.
You will write a book.
They will write a book.

A book will be written by us.

A book will be written by you

A book will be written by them

FORMATION (PRESENT PERFECT)

Subject + present perfect form of the verb to be + Past Participle (3rd form of irregular verbs)

Charles has written a book.

A book has been written by Charles.

Charles has cleaned the windows.

The windows have been cleaned by Charles.

I have written a book. You have written a book. He has written a book.

You have written a book. They have written a book.

- PASSIVE A book has been written by me.
- A book has been written by you.
- A book has been written by him.
- A book has been written by you.
- A book has been written by them.