

SCANNER AND PRINTER

- Scanner - is an input device that is analyzing an object (usually an image, text) to create a digital copy of the image of the object.

- Printer - is an external computer peripheral device designed to display text or graphics information stored in the computer hard physical medium, usually paper matrix printer consists of:

- The ribbon cartridge,
- System of the print head,
- Supply system and drawing paper,
- A microprocessor control system,
- Mechanical and optical sensors,
- Secondary power source.

The scanner comprises:
light beam photodetector engine matrix

GIPERCENTER.COM