

Move the finger pointer a bit so that we can read "Step 1", "Step 2", ... Right now it's hiding the text

Remove "Delite"

Replace the code with

```

```

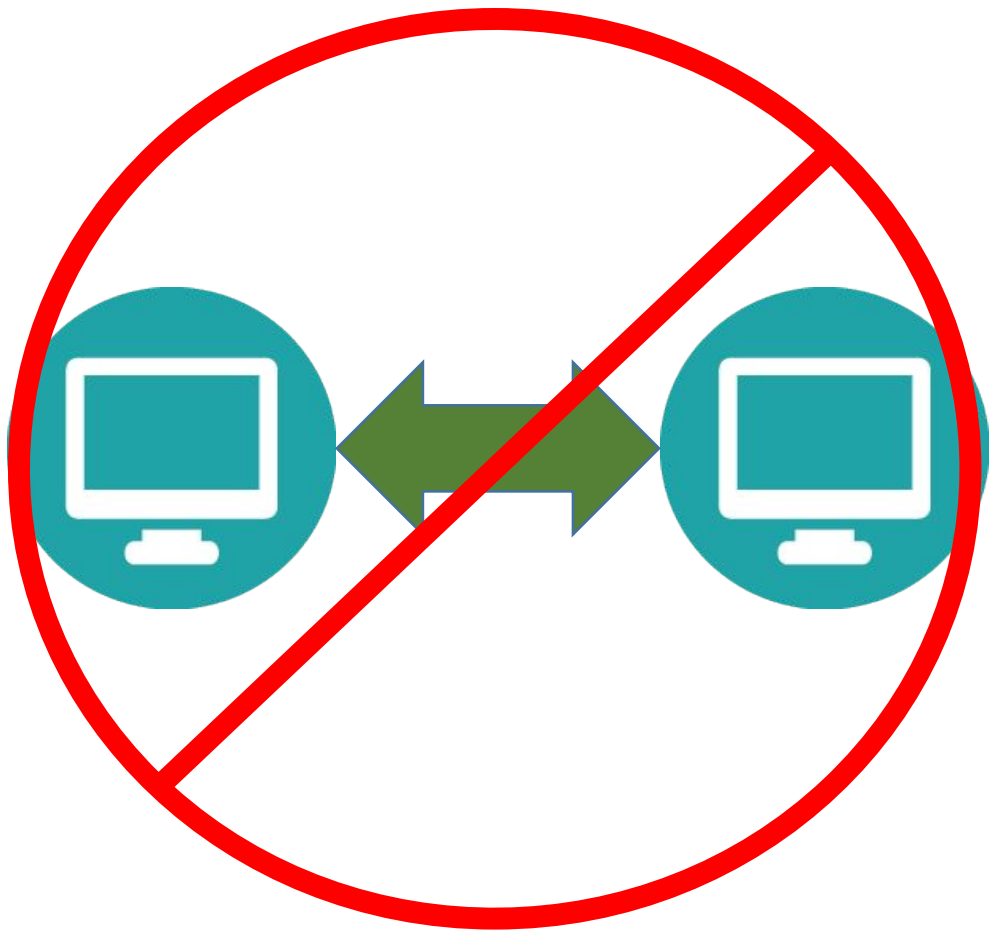

Take out the dark cross on the box behind the logo

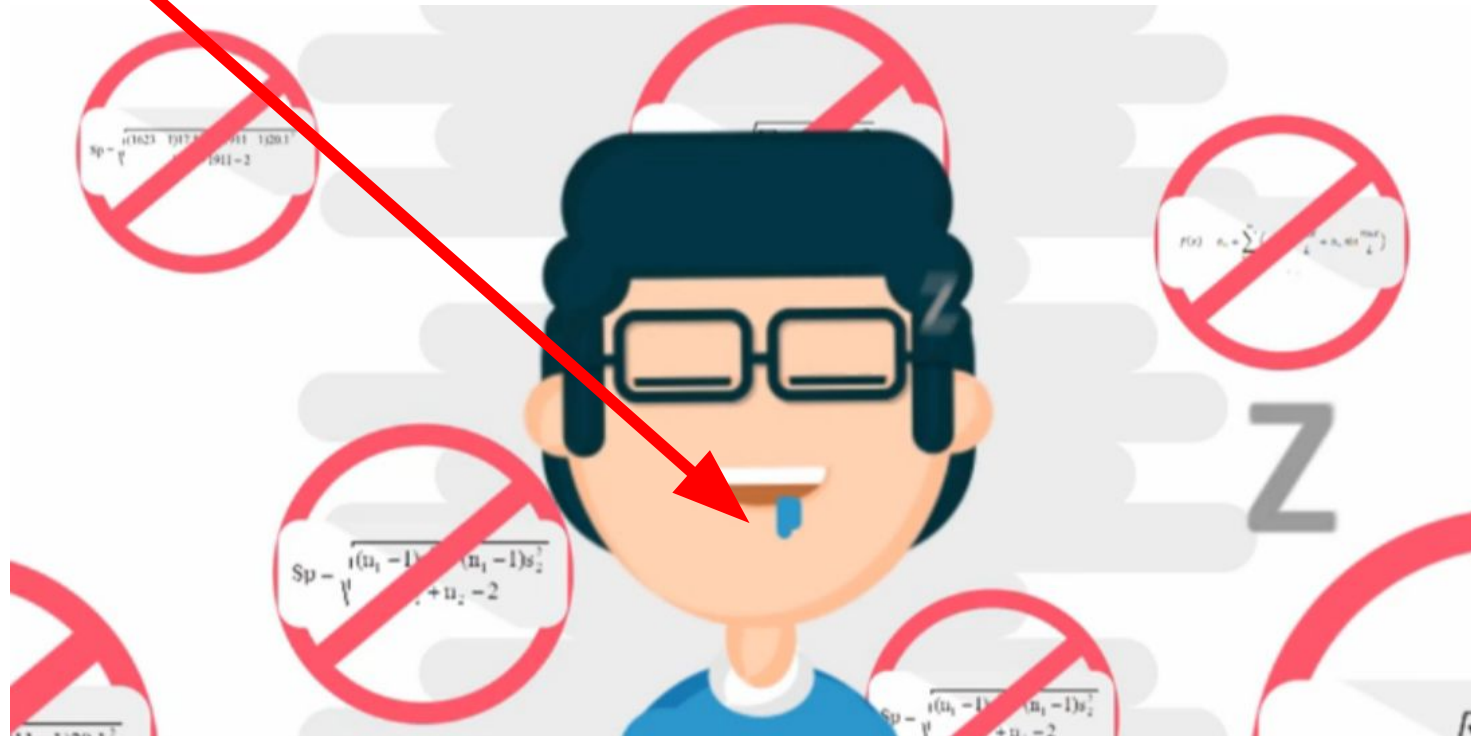

Tanke out the logos, replace with a big envelope and round arrows to represent email marketing change

Too many details on this graphic, replace with icons like this representing IT setup

Intead of druling, can you tilt his head like sleeping?

Please use these logos instead, i've attached a PSD file (use some of the top ones that are very known)

This last part there's not much happening on the screen while the voice over is talking for the last 10 seconds. Maybe spread the animation over the last 10 seconds:

- first show the logo
- then show the 8Seconds.net
- then show Schedule your demo today
