

Internet in my life

Mareyko I.

using the Internet, I can download the latest movies, music, games for the further use of spending their leisure time

Internet also helps me in school, so that to make the essay takes much less time and even the Internet is helping me with the translation of texts from English into Russian and vice versa on the Internet a lot of training videos on various topics that I think is very useful for people

