

Natural disasters

Natural disasters

Flood

Hurricane

Blizzard

Earthquake

Tornado

Lava

Volcano

Eruption

Landslide

To wash away

To repair

To destroy

To blow over

To freeze

To injure

To damage

To hurt

To predict

Deliberately

Careless

tsunami

Answer the questions:

1. What is the article about?
2. How much of Greece is covered by forests?
3. What were the main reasons of vegetation destroying?
4. Can people build on forested land?
5. Do people burn forested land deliberately?

Passive voice

- Thousands of people are killed every year.
- People aren't allowed to build on land with forests.
- Was the land covered by forest in the past?
- Have people been killed or injured in fires?
- I hope a solution to this problem will be found.

AP後のミヤギテレビ報道フロア

You are journalists. You want to find out about a tsunami in Japan. Ask some questions

1. What kind of disasters/you have/ in Japan?
2. You/ often / have / tsunami?
3. When/ the last disaster/ in Japan?
4. What / you can/ tell us / about it?
5. What/ damaged?
6. Were / many people / killed?
7. How many / people / injured?
8. Was / the tsunami / predicted/ by scientists?
9. How many / houses / destroyed?
10. Who / rescued/ people?

Homework

Write a composition about a natural disaster in your country. Ex. 6b, p. 69