Fruit and vegetables

You should eat
them to be healthy

calcium

It makes our bones strong

Sugar and sweats

These products give us energy but they consist
a lot of sugar

protein

“It” is called a building material for all of our body.

carbohydrates

“They” may be fast or slow. If they are fast, they are not useful. If they are slow, they are good for you.

cooks

My mum always (to cook) tasty.

are allowed

We (to allow) to eat
what we want.

are burning

Watch out! You (to burn) your dish!

have never tried

We never (to try) sushi.

had bought, met

Kate (to buy) everething she needed when I (to meet) her at the shop.

tea

Englishmen drinks “it” several times per day

Fast food

Children like “it”, but it is not allowed to sell in a school canteen.

pizza

In the USA October is “its” month. Americans like this Italian cake. Name it.

cucumber

This vegetable is very watery, it consists of 95% water

milk

Long ago it was luxury to drink because people couldn't preserve “it” enough time.

Ukrainian

Traditional dish of this cuisine is special
tomato soup with
dumplings (galushki)

Italian

This cuisine is the most popular in the world. Pasta, pizza and cheese are liked by most people.

Indian

People are interested in this cuisine because its spicy. Native people add some spice even making tea.

French

Sauces came up from here. Thanks to this cuisine we know the mayonnaise and sauce béchamel

Japan/Japanese

The Fugu fish is the most toxic. But cooks of this country can cook it well. They must have special skills.

dishwasher

“It” is helpful. When you have this machine you needn’t do washing-up yourself.

toaster

People often use “it” in the morning when they want to fry some bread.

Food processor

“It” is an indispensable tool
in the kitchen. We can cut, mix and
grate using it

measuring cup

When you want to cook some dish you can use a recipe. So you need “it” to know how much salt, sugar or milk you need.

knives

They may be narrow and wide, they may be long and short. You can't cook any meal without them.

sleep

As you know Britains drink a lot of tea. Continue this proverb: “Seven cups of tea can help to wake up, nine cups can help
to...”

breakfast

They call it “breakie” and, as
you, have it in the morning.

pudding

This traditional English dessert is
cooked from eggs,
milk, sugar and
flour

fish & chips

British like this food very much. It's like “hot dogs” for Americans.

Prepared, cooked

Everybody knows about simplicity of British food. So once Jacques Chirac said, "You can not trust people who are ... badly"
