

Nord stream 2 is under threat.

What happened?

On September 7, Europe condemned Russia and considered suspending the construction of stream 2.

The main initiator of blocking the project is US President Donald Trump

European countries take an unambiguous position: Nord stream 2 is primarily a political project of the Kremlin, an instrument of pressure on Western European partners. This position is shared by Latvia, Lithuania and Poland. The last of them even offered to replace the NS-2 with its Baltic Pipe gas pipeline

What was the reason?

- On the morning of August 20, the number 1 opposition leader in Russia, Alexey Navalny, according to Germany, was poisoned with the novichok nerve agent, which was banned for use. However, no evidence, documents, or analysis of the blogger was provided . In Europe, too, there is no unity on this issue, because some Bundestag deputies take into account all the consequences of this decision

The consequences

- The threat of 10 billion euros in penalties
- Increase in gas and energy tariffs in the European Union by at least 20-30%
