

Monuments to scientists of the Russian Federation

Asriyan Tamara

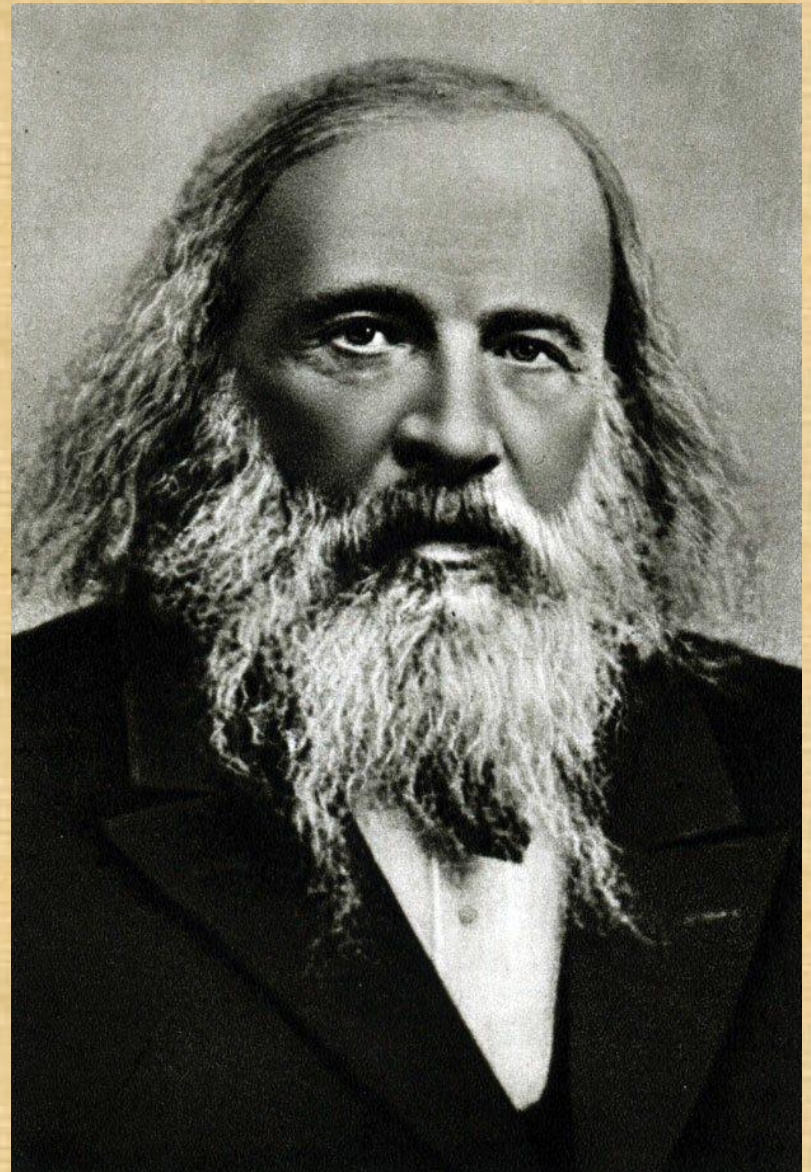

Form 8A

School №12, Pyatigorsk

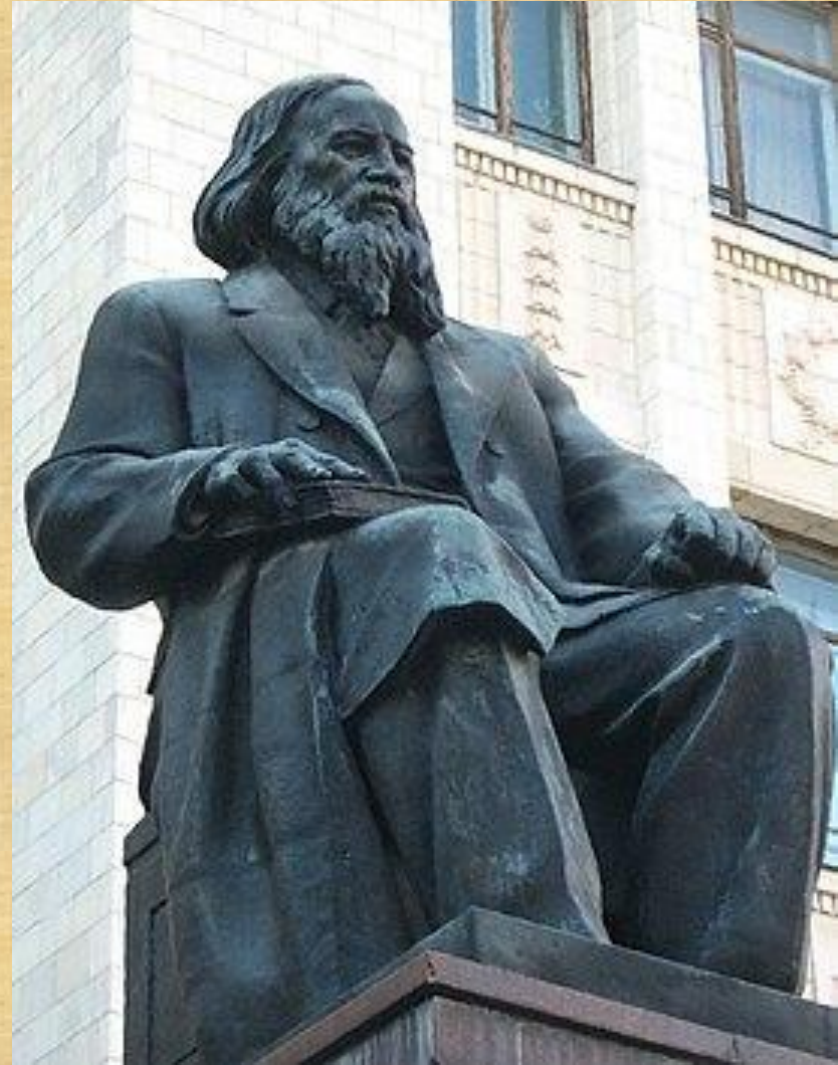

Alenko Alla Vladimirovna

Monument to Dmitry Mendeleev

Monument to Dmitry Mendeleev is a monument to the chemist, discoverer of the periodic law, Dmitry Mendeleev. It was installed in 1953 in front of the building of the Faculty of Chemistry of Moscow State University. The sculptor of the monument was Andrei Bembel, and the architect was Lev Rudnev.

The monument is made of cast iron and depicts a scientist sitting in an unbuttoned coat. His hands are in his lap, one of them is holding a book. The statue is placed on a granite pedestal with a commemorative inscription: "Dmitry Ivanovich Mendeleev 1834-1907".

The sculpture is part of the ensemble “Complex of buildings of the Lomonosov Moscow State University”. In 1987, it was taken under the protection of the government with the assignment of the status of a cultural heritage site of regional significance.

In 2014-2015, the Moscow City Heritage Site carried out the restoration of the monument. It was cleaned of dust and dirt, polished and covered with a special protective compound, and cracks were also repaired. The contractor was the company "Agey-7"

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Dmitri_Mendeleev

<https://www.britannica.com/biography/Dmitri-Mendeleev>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=IhLsW0j5qbw>