

Grand Canyon

Doing work: Ananina Sofia
6 «A»

The Grand Canyon is one of America's main tourist attractions. It is so big that you must go there yourself to feel its true size and beauty. The Colorado River formed the Grand Canyon over millions of years.

Here you can enjoy an incredible palette of colors, looking at the red, gold and orange cliffs, purple abyss, crystal clear waters, so these places are considered as one of the most beautiful corners of the Earth.

Interesting Facts

- Every year, The Grand Canyon is visited by over 4 million people.
- Among the tourists on the popular Colorado rafting in inflatable rafts and descent into the canyon by mule.
- In 2013, the Grand Canyon has passed the famous American tightrope walker Nicolas Wallenda, who passed over the chasm on a tightrope without a safety cable.

