TOP-10

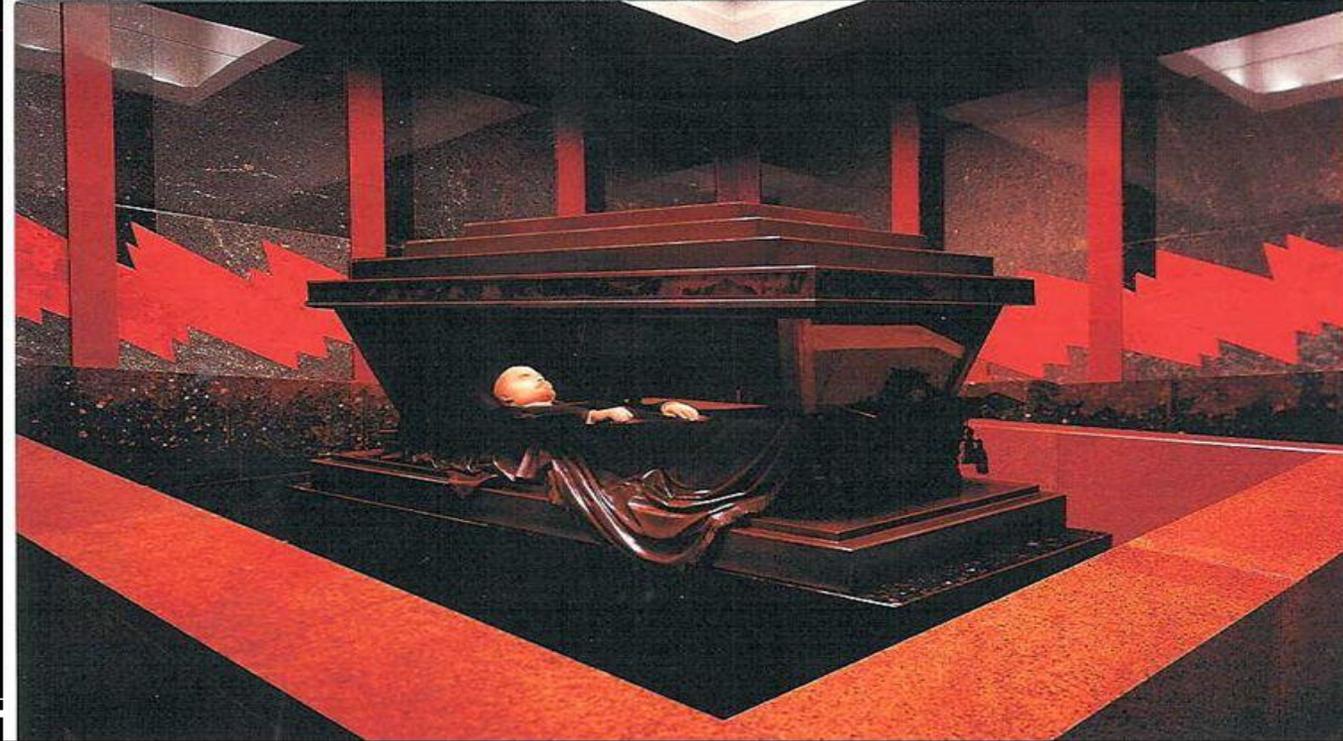

The Red Square

Today the Red Square as known as a tourist magnet and this often the site of events, festivals and concert. This is the heart of Moscow!

Lenin's Tomb and The Kremlin

Inside Lenin's Tomb

The Kremlin is the historical heart of Moscow. And the Lenin's Tomb is open to the public. If you want to have a look at Lenin's embalmed body, visit the step-like pyramid of Lenin's mausoleum.

Tretyakov Gallery

- ▶ Your Moscow sightseeing itinerary should include a trip to the Tretyakov Gallery, a fantastic museum of art in Moscow.
- ▶ The Tretyakov is the foremost gallery of Russian fine art the world over and presents a fantastic overview of Russian art history.

Zaryadye Park

- ▶ Zaryadye Park is a very modern park, sitting just high enough to provide spectacular views of the city. Take a walk up there at sunset and you'll have an incredible experience. That's what we did, and it was truly magical.

The image shows the interior of Cafe Pushkin in Moscow. The room is highly ornate, featuring white-painted woodwork with intricate carvings and gilded accents. In the foreground, there are several round tables with white tablecloths and ornate, upholstered chairs. A long, curved display case filled with pastries and confections runs along the back wall. The lighting is warm and ambient, highlighting the detailed architecture and the elegant atmosphere of the cafe.

Cafe Pushkin

- ▶ This is a famous cafe in Moscow that serves great Russian food, but it's most well-known for its stunning decor. Situated inside what was once the house of a nobleman, it is a sophisticated and charming place that you're going to want to Instagram! If possible, make a reservation for the Library Room, which is the cafe's most epic spot.

Gorky Park

- ▶ The Gorky Park is an excellent place for walking and various leisure activities. Inside the park you will find a lot of things to do: a lot of sports zones, food courts, lawns with deckchairs, hammocks and pouffes, bicycle paths, bicycle rental outlets, scooters and rollers, and other sports equipment.

Patriarch Ponds

- ▶ Also known in common language as Patriks))))))
- ▶ The Pond is one of the main settings of Bulgakov's novel The Master and Margarita.
- ▶ This site is the most popular place for teenage party!

Moscow metro museum

- ▶ Concept of an identity for Moscow Metro Museum:
- ▶ The museum isn't very popular, not many people have ever heard about it, although Moscow metro is kind of a brand of the city. There are also quite a lot of people who feel interest about Metro and tourists definitely like Moscow underground palace. So the aim was to develop a modern and clear brand, which will tell people about the beauty and diversity of Moscow metro architecture and history.

See you in Moscow City!!!
Bye-bye!
