Listening

Match the four sections of the Listening test and the type of text that the candidate will hear.

Section 1	a. a monologue on a topic relating to general social needs
Section 2	b. a lecture or talk on a topic of general academic interest
Section 3	c. a conversation in an academic context between two or more people
Section 4	d. a conversation in an everyday social context between two people

Reading

Section 1	The passage usually contains arguments and opinions and is often research-based. It is generally more challenging than the other two sections.
Section 2	The text is usually divided into paragraphs or sections –A,B,C, etc. It may be descriptive, discursive or a combination of two. There are usually three "matching tasks" –matching headings or information.
Section 3	The passage Is usually descriptive or factual. A candidate needs to find specific information. It is the easiest part.

Speaking

Part 1	After a minute's preparation, the candidate speaks for two minutes on a familiar topic provided by the examiner. 3-4 min
Part 2	The examiner and the candidate discuss some general questions based on the theme of the previous topic. 4-5 min
Part 3	The examiner asks a number of questions about familiar topic such as studies, hobbies, etc. 4-5 min

Writing

Task 1	A 150-word summary of information presented in graphic or diagrammatic form. Candidates are advised to spend 20 min on Task 1.
Task 2	a 250-word essay presenting an argument on a given topic. Candidates are advised to spend 40 min on Task 2.

What can I do to prepare myself better/improve my English?
