Bright and stable play Leon at the very beginning of his career gave rise to the sports journalists compare themselves with others Cuban Prodigy — baseball player, double Olympic champion Omar Linares, debuted in the national team at the age of 15 years.

The victory of the Kazan club

– Poland for you second home, you received a passport of that country. In fact, you played at home. You had additional motivation in this regard?

– I had a motivation to win in Krakow title with Zenit. It was the most important. I don't think that a victory "Zenith" over "Resovia" in the semi-pleased with those who are worried about the club from the city where I started my life in Poland. I love this country, but my job today is Kazan, it is "Zenith". We have a great team, a very strong coach, very good management and I am happy that we are Champions.
