

HIPPIE

Hippie is a specific subculture that emerged in the U.S. in the early sixties of the twentieth century.

Their mission was to bring into masses pure love, peace, unity, freedom of expression and confrontation of social norms.

A Grand tradition hippie- Rainbow Gathering.

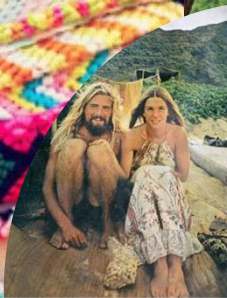

Symbol hippie – rainbow.

Appearance

Regardless of gender – long hair combed to a straight parting, a special tape around the head, on the hands – "baubles," i.e. self-made bracelets or necklaces, often made of beads, wood or leather, often disproportionate knitted sweater decorated with beads or embroidery denim bag on the neck for storing money and documents , color of clothing mainly bright , but not flashy. The latest generation of hippies distinguished by such attributes as a backpack and three to four stake formed in the ears, less frequently in the nose (piercing).

Music style

Music culture hippies was a mixture of rock, folk, Blues and psychedelic rock.

Modern hippie

