Circus Oz

Circus Oz started in Australia in 1978. A group of performers got together and went on tour. They performed in a Palestinian refugee camp, in the Australian desert, and also in the Brazilian rainforest! They are a big success and they tour across Australia and the world every year.

Their shows are very exciting. There are trapeze artists, jugglers, acrobats and a strong woman. They play their own music too. Before each show they all get into their costumes.

There isn't a 'star of the show', just an amazing group of characters. Mason is an acrobat who can climb a vertical pole and stand on lots of rolling drums. Rowan can swing from a trapeze and she is very strong. Hazel can juggle a table with her feet!

In Circus Oz the performers do funny things all the time. Tim is a clown. He's very unusual. At first you think: 'Why are people looking up?' And then you see – Tim is on the ceiling! He talks to the audience below and doesn't get down during the whole show.

At the end of the show nine of the performers get on the same bike at the same time!

Circus Oz has excitement, danger and humour. I took my kids, Oliver (15) and Josh (13), and we really enjoyed it. So what are you waiting for? Buy a ticket for the show!

The contortionist was my favourite. He climbed <sup>5</sup>to/into a very small box and closed it. Then a clown decided to sit <sup>6</sup>down/on. He sat <sup>7</sup>to/on the box, of course. ## Fun for all Covent Garden is one of the most popular parts of London. Tourists and Londoners, adults and kids – they all enjoy the great shops, restaurants and cafés, and, most of all, they love the street performers. At Covent Garden, you can see some of the best street performers in the world. There are jugglers, clowns, magicians, living statues, musicians – the list goes on and on!

Before they can perform there, performers have to pass a test (it doesn't cost anything). The shows are free, and performers don't go round and collect money – but most people throw money into the hat! The performers can keep all the money. Sometimes the audience is small but often there are big crowds, and there's a lot of money at the end of the show.

George is an acrobat. He learnt his skills at circus school and then joined a circus and went on tour round Britain. Now he performs at Covent Garden.

'You have to work hard to get an audience,' he says. 'You tell jokes, sing, dance – then when you have a good crowd you can start the show.'

Chantelle plays the violin in an orchestra, but she prefers Covent Garden!

'The crowds are always great here,' she says, 'And the money's better than my orchestra job!'
