

Profession lawyer

The main goal of the lawyer is to protect the rights and legitimate interests of a citizen or organization. To do this, the lawyer is engaged in the search and analysis of legally relevant information to give legal opinions on certain issues.

A lawyer is a specialist who is fluent in information about legislative bases. He collects evidence and evidence, on the basis of which he makes decisions. This sphere is so vast that lawyers are classified according to the basics of their focus. They act as defenders, prosecutors, experts, professors and judges.

2G-16-1

Akxmetghanova.G
Valeeva Aida