

Theme: The Individual lessons in special school.

Teacher: Kupeev A.R

Student: of 2 course
Tolegen A.T

Currently, there are eight types of special schools for children with developmental disabilities.

Special (correctional) educational institution for deaf children);
A special (correctional) educational institution for hard of hearing and late children;

Special (correctional) educational institution for blind children);
Special (correctional) educational institution for visually impaired children);
Special (correctional) educational institution for children with severe speech disorders);

Special (correctional) educational institution for children with learning difficulties - mental retardation);

Special (correctional) educational institution for children with mental retardation).

-
- A preparatory class is organized for children who have not received full preschool education. Children from the age of 7 are admitted to the first class.
 - All educational activity is permeated with the work on the formation and development of verbal oral and written speech, communication, the ability to perceive and understand the speech of those around on an auditory basis. Children learn to use the rests of hearing to hear speech and hearing it with the use of sound reinforcement equipment.

Tests

- How many special schools for children with disabilities exist?
 - A) 4
 - B) 5
 - C) 6
 - D) 7

True

False

Children with what diseases are not taken into classes?

A) Epilepsy

B) Blind children

C) for children with mental retardation

TRUE

FALSE

Используемая литература

- <http://www.eti-deti.ru/pedag/308.html>
- <http://www.complexneeds.org.uk/modules/Module-2.1-Planning-to-meet-needs/B/m05p030b.html>
- http://www.citizensinformation.ie/en/education/primary_and_post_primary_education/going_to_primary_school/special_needs_education/primary_schools.html

