

Russian people national traits

- 1. Russia ranks first in the occupied territory with a population of 145 million people.

- 2. Representatives of over 160 nationalities live in Russia.

- 3. 1.3 to 1.5 million homeless people in Russia

- 4. People under the age of 18 cannot buy or drink alcohol or smoke cigarettes.

- 5. Russians do not like to tell strangers about their life

- 6. It is customary to bring an even number of flowers at a funeral.

- 7. In Russia same-sex relationships are not accepted.

- 8. Many Russians like to drink alcohol.

- 9. The icicles hanging from the roofs of cities in winter are so large that they can kill you by falling on your head. Therefore, sidewalks in front of buildings are fenced.

- 10. Chicken paw soup (jelly) is considered a delicacy.

- 11. They love locker rooms. As soon as you enter a restaurant, museum, bar, you will be asked to turn over your clothes into the dressing room. The best wardrobes are effectively managed by teams of grandmothers.

- 12. The life expectancy of men is 63 years. The life expectancy of women is 75 years.

- 13. In Russia, you can see trees hung with castles. Couples hang these locks as proof of their love.

- 14. There are approximately 11 million more women in Russia than men.

- 15. Russians do not trust cheap things.

- 16. For the New Year do not be surprised if you are invited at 11:30 pm. The Russians drink champagne and cognac until 6 in the morning, eat herring under a fur coat and Olivier salad in the kitchen, and then the celebration lasts another three days.

- 17. Although Russians don't trust cheap things, they really love a freebie.

- 18. During any meeting in Russia people are immediately divided by gender.

- 19. You can not be afraid for your life when you walk the streets of cities at night.

- 20. Russians like to criticize their country, but they are terribly offended if a foreigner does it.