Underwater dining in the

A restaurant interior featuring a large aquarium wall. The wall is filled with various marine life, including two large stingrays in the foreground, several smaller fish swimming around, and a large octopus on the left. The water is a deep blue-green color. In the foreground, there is a wooden dining table set for two people. The table is set with white plates, glasses, and silverware. Two modern, black, adjustable lamps are positioned over the table. The chairs are dark brown leather.
