

Monuments is our history.

They remind us of those events of the past, that must never be forgotten. People can not live without knowledge of the history. A man who does not know the history of his country is like a tree without roots...

Our ancestors died for the happiest future of our country in the days of the Second World War.
They got the victory over fascism 70 years ago.
We must be proud of them and hold their feat in our memory.

But nowadays there are some evil and immoral people who destroy monuments of the Great War. Unfortunately, authorities participate in it sometimes.

They act as vandals do.

Such people get no soul.

Their actions hurt us deep inside.

Their actions strike THEIR hearts...
