Present Simple and Present Progressive tenses

- Student Book. Page 28, exercise 1.1.
- You have two stories about good friends. Paul and Jane are talking about their best friends. They show you photos.
- Read the texts and translate.

Jane: My best friend Sarah is very cheerful. She is good at swimming and always swims at school competitions. Last summer she taught me to swim. In the photo we are swimming in our school swimming pool. Sarah is swimming after me.

- 2) How do the children spend time together? What are the children doing in the photos? Read Learning to learn, note 7.
