Brainstorm for initial ideas and make a rough
plan of the structure.

Read and make notes in the library, then read
some more and amend my initial plan.

Finish writing the first draft with additions - 2000 words are now on paper!

Sit down and analyse the question first of all to make sure I've really understood it.

First visit to the library in search of relevant reading material.

Spend the morning in the library again, to find
the missing information that the essay needs.

Look again at essay - proof read for language
and typing errors; print to check presentation.

Time to edit the first full draft - and improve it!

More revision and second drafting of essay to make sure I'm answering the essay question.

Time to put pen to paper! Start writing first essay draft, and review what more is needed.

Print out final version of the essay and hand it in to the office before the 11 o'clock deadline!
