

MASS MEDIA

Television (satellite/cable) – broadcasting programmes for people to watch on they television sets.

Newspaper (daile/weekly) – a paper printed and sold with news, advertisement.

Tabloid – a newspaper with small pages, many pictures and little serious news

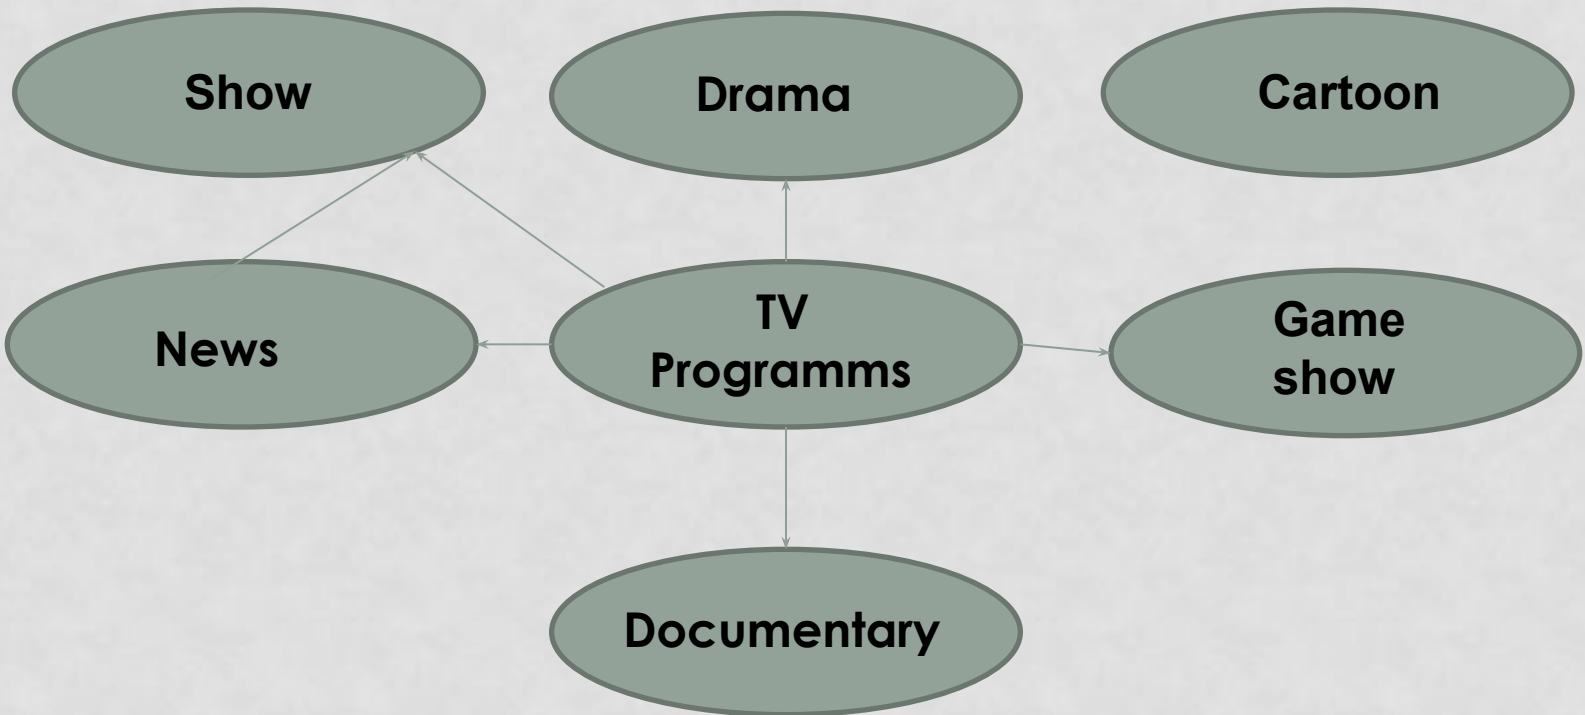

The Internet – a way to communicate using the computer.

Radio – broadcasting programs for people to listen to

TV Programmes

Documentary – a programme that is based on facts

The news – a programme about the latest events.

Game show – a programme where people compete to win the game.

Cartoon – animated films for children and tale adults.

Show – a programme where people tell us about their personale life and problems.

Drama- a programme that tells us a story usully with some sad or tragic ending