My future profession is a trainer. Any beginning sportsman needs an assistant at the same time - that is, the person who will help, support and teach him. That is why there is such a profession as a coach. I really want to help young athletes achieve their goals, support them in difficult situations, become their mentor.

I want to watch how little girls become graceful and beautiful gymnasts.

That's why I'm studying to be a rhythmic gymnastics coach

The main impetus for coaching was my coach, who later became a second mother for all of us. Ella Alexandrovna A coach with a capital letter, in her big and pure heart there is a place for every child.

---

It was she who showed me what a real coach should be. Her support and guidance gave me confidence in myself.

Ella Alexandrovna is my motivator in such a difficult profession.

- As for me, an important quality that a coach should have is stress resistance. It is difficult to find an approach to each child and their parent. So, it is worth noting that mastery in my profession requires a large stock of knowledge, as well as nerves of steel. These qualities will definitely help me become a professional in my field.
