Tender is the Night was published in 1933. Set between 1913 and 1930, mostly in Southern France and Switzerland, the novel tells the story of what happens when the extremes of love, madness, and ambition play out against a high-glamour backdrop, in a physical and psychological landscape torn apart by World War I.

The plot of the book

Book One begins in June of 1925, at a beachfront hotel on the French Riviera, near the city of Cannes.

Mrs. Speers and her daughter, Rosemary Hoyt, arrive on holiday . She quickly makes friends with Dick and Nicole Diver. Encouraged by her mother, the young actress finds herself falling in love with Dick. Chapters 1-25 tell the love story of Dick and Rosemary.

Dick Diver

"golden boy"

He has an affair with Rosemary, and his marriage to Nicole starts to fail over time.

Nicole Warren Diver

“granddaughter of a self-made American capitalist”

- Nicole is classically and mesmerizingly beautiful
- She has an ambiguous relationship with Rosemary

Rosemary Hoyt

The young Hollywood film actress is incredibly beautiful and symbolizes the hope and innocence of the younger generation.

Prediction
