

Anzhero-Sudgensk

Anzhero-Sudgensk — is a town in the Kemerovo district of Russia, 115 km north from the district capital – Kemerovo with a population of 74 376 people.

The population over the last 55 years

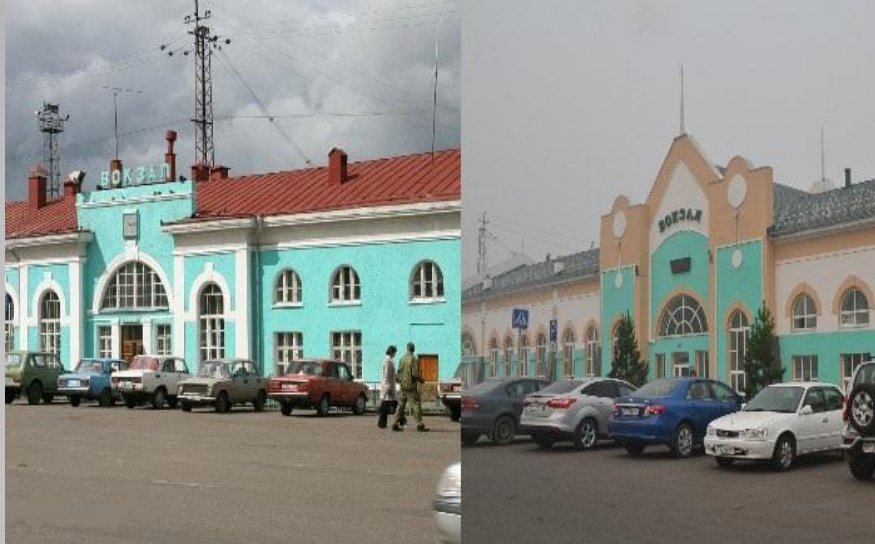

In the late XIX century throughout the whole of Siberia the government start building the Siberian railway.

H I S T O R Y

In 1895 there was station Anzherovskaya opened.

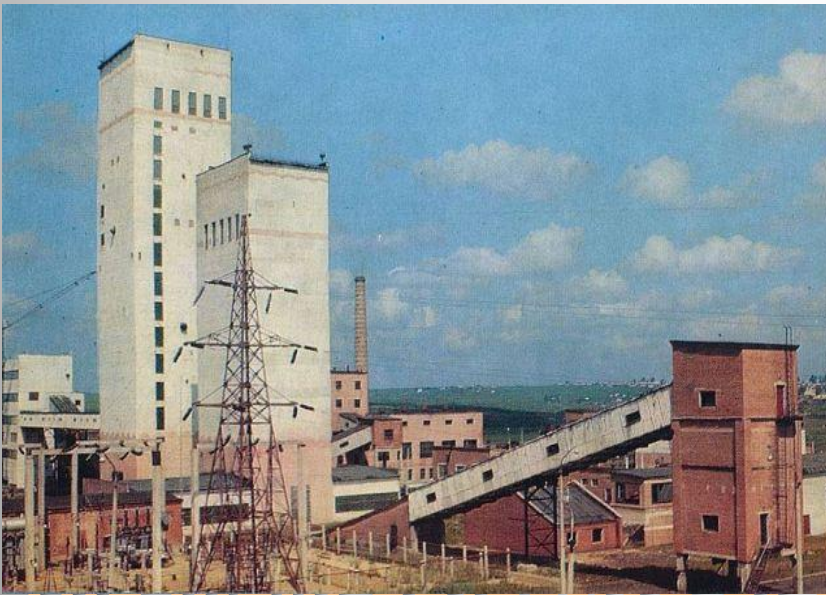

There were four shacks opened for the workers to live in. Close to the station there was a village called Sudgenskoye. Stations Angerovskaya and Sudgenskaya become big and famous for their mining.

In 1928 the two villages - Anzherka and Sudgenka join and become Anzhero-Sudzhensk.

In 1931 Angero-Sudgen sk gains the status of a city.

The main objective of the town during the years was to supply the country with coal.

GREAT PATRIOTIC WAR
OBELISK IN ANZHERO-THE GREAT PATRIOTIC

After the end of the war there was a glass, a meat, a milk factory opened in the town.

SOME FAMOUS LANDMARKS OF THE CITY

- ASFKemGU
- Railway Station
- DK "Central"
- The building of the city administration
- The cinema "Raduga"
- SDJuShOR №1 Junost'
- Central Library

SQUARE BORCAM REVOLJUCII

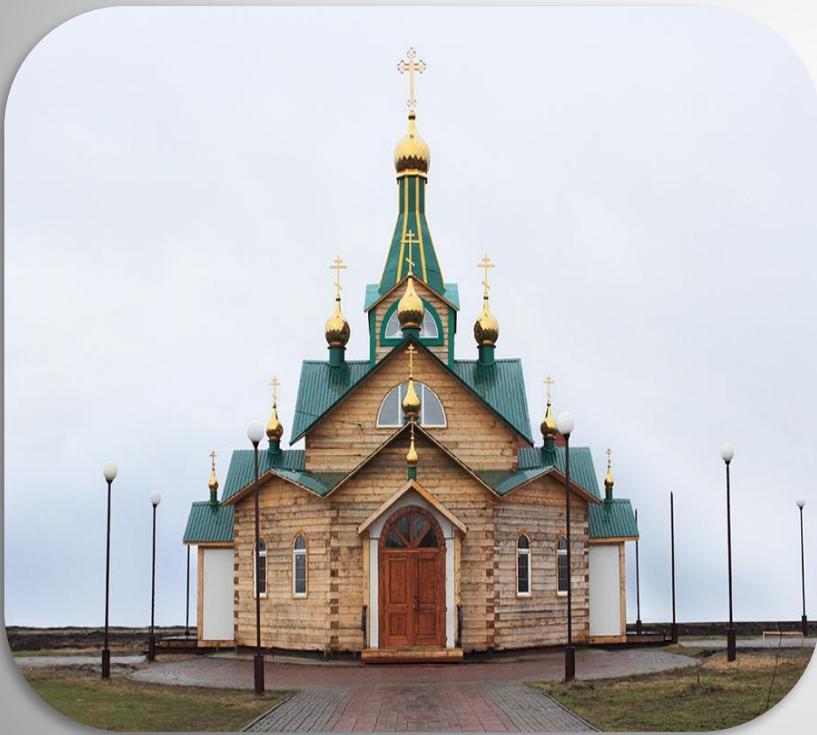

It also includes attractions Anjero-Sudenska related temples

"Petropalovskij
hram"

The very first wooden temples Anjero Sydjenska. Buiding was begin in 1948.

"Svjato-Troickij hram"
Was buid in 1997 in memory dead mieners.

Thank you for your attention