Present Simple & Present Continuous

A stack of white papers with blue lines, slightly blurred, set against a light green background.A clear image of a round clock with a white face and black numbers, set against a yellow background.

Differences

Present Simple

- We use it to show an action in the present and a habit.
- Present simple can be used with adverbs like: always, often, usually, sometimes, never, every day, every week, every year, etc
 - Ex. I always go to school.
 - Ex. Robert plays football every day.
 - Ex. We like to eat cookies.

From: Verb + “s” or “es”

Present Continuous

- We use it to show that an action is happening now, at the moment of speaking
- Present continuous can be used with words like: now; at the moment; Look!; Listen!
- E.g. I am walking to school.
- E.g. Listen! She is singing.
- E.g. I am eating ice-cream now.

Form: am/is/are + Verb + “ing”

What tense is it and why?

- She is running home.
- They are driving a car.
- Ştefan and Dragoş like to play football.
- I go to school.
- I am drinking orange juice.
- I am making homework.
- The bike is red.
- They are playing badminton.

Now you try!

- Next there are some verbs. Make sentence in the present simple and a sentence in the present continuous!

play	drink	run
swim	make	go
