

The image is a digital collage. At the top left and bottom right, there are diagonal strips of traditional Ukrainian embroidery (vyshyvanka) in red, white, and black. The background is split: the top half shows a blue sky with light clouds, and the bottom half shows a golden wheat field. A large, stylized map of Ukraine is centered, with the top portion in blue and the bottom portion in yellow, matching the Ukrainian national flag. The text "Ukraine is my house" is written in a black serif font across the blue part of the map.
