

Sorbonne University

«Creators of future
since 1257»

SORBONNE UNIVERSITY

- 13 autonomous universities
- 52,000 students
- 6,400 teachers and research staff
- 33 Nobel prizes have already been awarded

HISTORY OF THE SORBONNE UNIVERSITY

According to historical chronicles, the history of the Sorbonne begins at the beginning of the 13th century, when the University of Paris was established. The university was composed of several church schools that worked at monasteries and cathedrals on the left bank of the Seine. During the 15th - 21st centuries the university has grown to a huge scale.

FACULTIES AND UNIVERSITIES OF SORBONNE

- Faculty of Arts and Humanities
- Faculty of Medicine
- Faculty of Science and Engineering

FACULTY OF ARTS AND HUMANITIES

To give students the tools to understand today's world and foresee tomorrow: these are the tasks facing the Faculty of Arts and Humanities, which combines art, languages, humanities and social sciences.

FACULTY OF MEDICINE

The Faculty of Medicine, affiliated with AP-HP, the Sorbonne University Group of Hospitals (Charles-Foix, Pittier-Salpetriere, Rothschild, Saint-Antoine, Tenon, Trousseau, La Roche-Guyon) and the Queens-Wings National Ophthalmological Hospital, strives to solve health problems by promoting interdisciplinary research spanning from laboratory to patient and by training future doctors and many other medical professionals.

FACULTY OF SCIENCE AND ENGINEERING

Covering all areas of knowledge in the field of science and technology, the faculty focuses both on supporting research at the core of disciplines and on developing interdisciplinary approaches to solving the main problems of the 21st century.

Academic excellence is ensured by its academic researchers and research partners whose work contributes to the quality of the courses provided by the faculty

FEATURES OF TRAINING

Education at the Sorbonne can be completed in bachelor's and master's degree programs. The duration of training depends only on the student and his financial capabilities. Thanks to this, every student of the University has the right to choose between fast and long study programs

ARCHITECTURE

The Sorbonne is more than just the main university in France. The old building, which is located in the Latin Quarter of Paris, is a unique historical and architectural monument belonging to the municipal property of the capital. There are statues of famous scientists, writers and public figures of different times.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR ATTENTION

