Moscow for foreign tourists

—

Guide to the most interesting places in Moscow

Have you come to Moscow and don't know what to visit? This guide is exactly for you!

We have collected for you the most popular places in Moscow that you should definitely visit

Don't know what to visit when it's raining, hot or when you want something unusual? Where to eat traditional food? Which places must you visit? Look further!

Do you want to eat traditional food?

Russian pub

Embodies the idea of a modern pub in the Russian interpretation

Tverskaya blv., 10, p. 1, Moscow, Russia

Uhvat

Russian cuisine from the oven

Rochdelskaya str., 15, p. 41

Sights of moscow

Red Square is one of the most famous Russia's places of interest. It is located right in the heart of Moscow.

The Kremlin is a fortified complex in the centre of Moscow. It is the main political and historical place of the city.

Ostankino Tower is the 8th tallest freestanding structure in the world and the tallest in Europe and Russia.

Saint Basil's Cathedral is located in Red Square. This Orthodox church is a world-famous landmark

What to visit when the weather is bad?

There are more than 400 different museums in Moscow to suit everyone.

Right now the main museums in the city are the following: The State Tretyakov Gallery, The Pushkin State Museum of Fine Arts, State Historical Museum of Russia, the Diamond Fund, the State Literature museum, the Polytechnic Museum, the State Museum of Oriental Art, the Memorial Museum of Cosmonautics, the Panoramic Museum of Borodino, the Museum of Modern Art, the Moscow museum,

When it's hot what to visit?

You can visit a boat ride on the Moscow River, eat delicious food and look at the scenery around. The water will be pleasantly cold and you will not be hot.

Unusual places in Moscow?

Perlov 's Tea House
Walking around Moscow often leads to Myasnitskaya Street, where a very unusual building is located — a Tea House.A tea and coffee shop continues to operate on the ground floor of the renovated building.