«Любите ли вы путешествовать?»
“Do you like travelling?”

Introduction

It's no secret that all people like travelling. Some of them do it for business purposes. Many people do it for relaxation or for educational purposes.

For travel, people choose completely different places, but there are those countries that have become the most popular places among travellers. During your stay in these places, you need to be careful with the locals and follow their traditions to make your trip more comfortable.

Now, I will talk about several of the most popular countries and the traditions that exist in these territories. This will help you to be prepared for a variety of situations.

The most popular countries for tourism

◆ France

◆ Spain

◆ China

France

France is rich in history and culture, its symbol is the Eiffel Tower.

- ✓ In France you shouldn't adjust your makeup on the street.
- ✓ When in France, don't dress "American Casual".
- ✓ When you enter or leave the store you should say "Hello" or "Goodbye".

Spain

Spain is a country of new discoveries and amazing experiences.

In Spain you shouldn't:

- ✓ show that you are unhappy,
- ✓ wear beachwear off the beach,
- ✓ travel without a ticket.

China

In China, the scale is in everything: the Great Wall of China and a terracotta army with 8,000 soldiers, a tea ceremony for half an hour, hundreds of dishes of the Chinese cuisine.

- ✓ Before going to China, learn Chinese because few people know English there.
- ✓ Do not pay in dollars.
- ✓ Do not stick sticks in the food.

Conclusion

To conclude, if you want to spend a wonderful weekend abroad, you need to know the rules of behavior in different countries. This will help you build good relationships. This knowledge is necessary in an unfamiliar environment.
